THIRTY KILLED WHEN LIGHTNING STRIKES SHIP

GOVERNOR'S PARTY HAS CLOSE CALL

Motor Car Carrying Hon. R. R. Bruce, His Niece and Mr. Fairbairn Leaves Road—No One Hurt

ACCIDENT OCCURS AT STRATHNAVER

Progress of Caravaneers Delayed by Mishap—Memorial to Pioneer Miners Unveiled

(Special to The Colonist)

QUENNEL, B.C., June 26.—The first accident, but fortunately not a serious one, delayed the progress of the international caravan in its progress throughout British Columbia. The car in which His Honor Lieutenant-Governor R. R. Bruce, Miss Margaret Mackenzie and Mr. A. M. D. Fairbairn were riding, left the road and went down an incline among willows at Strathnaver. Owing to the presence of mind of Mr. Nairn, driver of the car, no person was injured. Sudden rain had caused a freshet across the road at Strathnaver, near the estate of the Duke of Sutherland. Hitting this bad spot, His Honor's car started to slide-step over the embankment. To avoid what might have proved to be a serious accident, Mr. Nairn swung the wheel around and left the big automobile head down an incline. When it came to a stop at the deep mud on the side of a creek.

Neither His Honor nor Miss Mackenzie were injured in the slightest. "It was a unique experience," Miss Mackenzie declared, "I was just doing off and woke to find we were off the road."

REPLACED ON HIGHWAY

Most of the caravan was following the Lieutenant-Governor's car and attempted to assist in getting the automobile back on the road. It was not until Mr. R. H. Scanlon, Powell River, and Mr. W. M. Price, Seattle, attached cables onto the Continued on Page 20, Column 5

Lives Lost and Boats Are Sunk in Thunderstorm

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 26.—Three lives were lost and immense destruction was caused to property this afternoon in Lunenburg, Bonaville North, by a thunder and lightning storm of unprecedented violence. The storm, accompanied by hail of immense size, struck the settlements in the north and south arms. Rocks and window glass were shattered by fragments of lumps of ice said to weigh ten pounds, which were crained with rattle and roar from the heavens. Thirty boats were sunk in the harbor and three fishermen were drowned or killed. They were: Basil Goodyear, Roland Cuff and Samuel Goodyear. The bodies were recovered. The whole population was panic stricken by the phenomenon, which came suddenly following a perfect summer day.

Groom Delays As Tribal War Reddens River

By ARTHUR BELL

(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service.)

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, June 26.—A tribal war, caused by the bridegroom's being late at his own wedding, has been stopped temporarily at any rate, by a strong force of mounted police, which dispersed the combatants in the Valley of a Thousand Hills in Natal. The marriage had been arranged for yesterday between a girl from the Maritzburg side of the Umgeni River, and a native brave from the Pinetown side, but the groom failed to appear. Each tribe mustered about five hundred able-bodied men, many of whom were armed with rifles and assegais. The Amapepetwas, of which the bride was a member, attempted to cross the Umgeni, and the Ngwagas withheld their fire till they were almost over, when they let go a devastating volley which killed scores. Hand-to-hand fighting followed. The Ngwagas were gaining supremacy, and with 200 reinforcements were routing the Amapepetwas when the police arrived. One hundred were killed.

Last Carload Shipments From Island Runs Into Trouble on Winnipeg Market

RASPBERRIES ARE AWAITED

Some trouble has been experienced on the Prairie market over a carload of Vancouver island berries. This is a carload that went on the Winnipeg market, and it is reported that four hundred crates were left. The matter is being investigated by Mr. H. E. Tanner, who is on the ground, according to the markets report which arrived from Mr. J. A. Grant, of the Markets Branch, under date of yesterday.

This report of Mr. Grant states that the weather is cloudy and warm, with a prospect of clearing off.

Mysterious Murder on Motorship in Japanese Waters Baffles Police

By B. W. FLEISHER

(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service.)

TOKIO, June 26.—Japanese police in Yokohama face one of the most mysterious murder cases that has ever occurred in Japan, with the arrival there today of the new motorship Tatsuta Maru en route to San Francisco. The boat was on its way from Kobe to Yokohama when, after passing through the inland sea, a room boy discovered a fire in one of the third class cabins about 4 o'clock. He summoned help and the fire was extinguished without difficulty.

STEWART MURDERED

Meantime it was noticed that the chief steward was not present. Thinking it queer, officers went to his room, which they found with the door locked. The door was broken down and the officers were shocked to find the steward lying in his bunk dead, a knife wound in his throat.

LEADER TO RECEIVE MEDAL OF VALOR

(Associated Press)

ROOSEVELT FIELD, NEW YORK, June 26.—Completing his flight from Ireland, which was interrupted by a forced landing at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, Major Charles Kingsford-Smith brought his famous monoplane Southern Cross to a safe landing before an enthusiastic crowd at 8:31 p.m. (Eastern standard time) this afternoon, (8:31 p.m. Victoria time).

He first appeared out of the Northern sky, a speck attended by a dozen smaller specks, shortly before 6 o'clock, but passed high over the field to circle above Manhattan. Swinging his plane around Major Kingsford-Smith taxied his ship to the field, where photographers and sound reel men were banded three deep on the ground on the top of anybody's automobile that happened to be handy. Through the open windows of the cab Major Kingsford-Smith and three members of his crew, Captain J. Patrick Continued on Page 20, Column 6

Orders Name to Be Struck Off Roll of Honor

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 26.

Mr. James Macdonald, local veteran of the Great War, has ordered the name removed from the civic roll of honor because civic officials forced him to pay $100 municipal income tax. The roll of honor is a large bronze tablet and the names are deeply engraved upon it. Officials found it impossible to remove the name, and it was discovered that Macdonald a strip of paper has been pasted over his name.

THIEF CASE WILL GO TO JURY TODAY

John Kershaw Says Story Implicating Him in Hospital Theft Charge Was Fabricated

TRACES OWN ACTIONS DURING PERIOD

Wife and Sister of Accused Take Stand as Defence Attacks Account of Prosecution

A DEFENCE in which the denial of any connection with the theft of St. Joseph's Hospital funds, and accounted for the narrative of Miss Rita Vaughan, his accuser, on the basis of a sudden antipathy against himself in return for an unrequited affection, featured the second day of the trial of John Kershaw, at the special assize yesterday.

Kershaw had been on the witness stand two and a half hours when the court adjourned at 5:42 p.m. until 10:30 o'clock this morning, when argument by counsel will proceed. Mrs. Marian Kershaw, his wife, and Mrs. Kitty Smalley, his sister, also took the witness stand to support the account of the accused as to his movements before and after the robbery laid by Miss Vaughan at Kershaw's door. In his examination in chief by Mr. M. B. Jackson, K.C., the accused said he had met Miss Vaughan about five years ago, while he was employed as a driver for the C. & C. Taxi Company. Tracing his employment during the five-year period, Kershaw said he had driven for the taxi firm for some time, and had also left the city on three or four occasions to drive and pilot parties of prominent Victorians on motor tours of California. He had also worked at Yarrow as an electrician, and for a time at the Navy Yard, Esquimalt.

BOMB BURSTS IN PARCEL AT SEATTLE P.O.

SEATTLE, June 26.—Smashing every window within fifty feet, and hurling employees to the floor, a bomb burst in the Terminal post office, near the King Street station, here tonight, in a parcels post package being transported along a revolving belt to sorting tables on the floor below. Had the lethal package exploded a few seconds after it had reached the sorting table, at least three men would have been killed, postal inspectors investigating the explosion said.

Major Kingsford-Smith Invited to Visit Vancouver

VANCOUVER, June 26.—Major Charles Kingsford-Smith, acclaimed by the world for his successful transatlantic flight, has been invited by Mayor W. H. Malkin to thirty-Vancouver and bring the Southern Cross, veteran of two ocean flights. Immediately following news of Kingsford-Smith's successful landing at New York, Mayor Malkin wired the aviator the congratulations of Vancouver and coupled with it an invitation to visit the city. Added interest is given here to his achievement because of the fact that in his boyhood, the noted flyer attended elementary school in Vancouver.

Grasshoppers Halt Trains Near Vienna

By JOHN GUNTHER

(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service.)

VIENNA, Austria, June 26.—The world's most potent grasshoppers took a little exercise today, with the result that some of Austria's railways are paralyzed. Enormous swarms of insects began to assemble in a plenary session on the South Railway, between Wiener Neustadt and Eggenburg, about sixty miles from Vienna. When the Italian Express No. 6479 arrived, it was unable to plough through the gregarious grasshoppers, and it had to halt. Later two other fast trains were stopped and through traffic along the line had to be diverted.

Old Fleet Street Clock

The rumor that the old clock at St. Dunstan's Lodge, Regent's Park, is to be moved recalls that until a century ago it was one of the sights of London. It was made by Thomas

Harry in 1671 for the Church of St. Dunstan-in-the-West, Fleet Street, and was the first clock to rest on a bracket projecting from a building and to have two dials and minute hands. But its greatest appeal lay in the two wooden figures which strike the quarters.

PARTIES PLAN TO WOO VOTERS AFTER HOLIDAY

Leading Federal Figures Come to British Columbia Early in Campaign This Year

PREMIER TO SPEAK HERE AT ARMORIES

The prospect of the Dominion Day holiday has rather delayed arrangements for meetings in connection with the federal election, but it is expected that by the middle of next week the campaign will be in full swing.

Noted political leaders' visits in the week of July 7 are the keynote of the events in the early part of July. Conservative leaders are looking forward to the speech of Dr. R. J. Manion here on July 9, at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

Premier Mackenzie King has five meetings during his British Columbia campaign, at Revelstoke today, tomorrow week at Chilliwack, to meet the Fraser Valley farmers; on Monday, July 7, in Victoria; the following day in Vancouver, and in Kamloops on July 9. The Victoria meeting will be held at the Armories.

While Hon. H. H. Stevens, who is seeking re-election in Vancouver Centre, has set Wednesday for his campaign in that riding to begin with a monster meeting in the Auditorium, the ex-minister is also in charge of the Conservative arrangements in British Columbia.

The Liberal organizer, Major S. P. Moodie, has taken up his headquarters in Vancouver, leaving here until after the poll. Mr. T. D. Easton, Provincial Liberal leader, and Mr. G. S. Pearson, M.P.P., are helping the Federal Liberal candidates in a series of meetings.

While British Columbia Provincial elections have of recent years come at a time when campaigning is aided by climatic conditions, it is a long period since the Federal candidates had the best part of the year in which to move about.

Calgary and Edmonton are the only markets that are not supplied fully. They have enough, but Mr. Grant says they may be forced to absorb the overflow rolling eastward.

Saskatoon is getting a car not ordered from Haney, Winnipeg is also reported to be in the same plight. He points out that in the case of Winnipeg the price would break as there are six hundred crates of jobbed lots there, offered at $2, which was reflected on the price of firm stuff.

The last car of the Vancouver Island's shipments is there and has four hundred crates left. These were inspected yesterday by Mr. Tanner, and he adds that this is the first trouble the island shippers have had this season.

After the holidays, Mr. Grant says, strawberries will be firm until the raspberries begin to arrive in carload lots.

The Okanagan cherries are now on the markets in the Prairies and are driving out the imported cherries.

leave the city, that she would not let him. Things drifted for a few days and then Miss Vaughan had said that she would tell Mrs. Kershaw of "the affairs in the past few years." Witness did not continue his relationship with Miss Vaughan, but had endeavored to humor her.

Conditions at home grew difficult for him, continued Kershaw, through the telephoning of Miss Vaughan, whose existence was unknown to his wife, save as the voice of a strange woman who rang repeatedly and asked for "Johnnie." It was at this time, said Kershaw, he told some of his troubles to his sister, Mrs. Smalley, and asked help with funds with which to get clothes and look for work in the United States.

Kershaw said he obtained $300 from Mrs. Smalley at his parents' home on the evening of Thursday, May 8, and that this was the money he had used to make purchases preparatory to going away to look for work.

After leaving Mr. McFadden on May 9, at Government and Belleville Streets, he had taken a street car to his home, continued the witness, and there left a note for his wife. In this note he stated he was about to leave the city and that he was sorry about leaving without her consent. Then he packed his bags and phoned for a taxi.

The evidence of the taxidriver had been correct in the main, said witness. He had spent the night at the Empress Hotel, down next day to Vancouver and thence went by boat by way of Seattle to Los Angeles, making the last part of the trip on the S. S. Emma Alexander. He bought his boat ticket in Vancouver, paying $38, he said.

After a short time in the South his funds grew low and he had returned to Seattle, to be told by a hotel clerk that if he was "John Smalley" he was wanted in Victoria by the police for a bank robbery and had been advised by the clerk to "beat it." Witness said he returned straightaway to Victoria, made inquiries at a grocery store at Menzies and Superior Streets to see if it was he who was wanted, and finding that it was, he secured counsel and gave himself up voluntarily to the city police.

CONFLICT IN EVIDENCE
Kershaw denied positively that he had lunched at Miss Vaughan's apartments on May 8, but said he had been at her home and had spent the day there in overall up to 2 p.m. Miss Vaughan and Mr. Russell Snedden, Crown witness, had been in error when they said he had lunched that day with Miss Vaughan, he reiterated, and retraced for the court his movements over the three-day period of May 8 to 10.

In cross-examination by Mr. A. M. Johnson, K.C., Crown counsel, Kershaw admitted he had been dismissed from the Provincial Police, but affirmed the fault had not been his.

His relations with Miss Vaughan had been of an intimate nature, but he had made no effort to dominate her, witness continued. Miss Vaughan had once given him $20 as a birthday present, and $10 on another occasion when she understood he was out of funds in Seattle and wanted to get him to return to Victoria, but no other sums, he averred.

Witness admitted making use of the aliases, "Collins," "Smalley," and "Sherwood," but said this was to avoid his wife.

PUT UP FRONT
Asked to explain the expenditure before leaving town of what Crown counsel said was $140 of the $300 funds he had received from his sister, Kershaw said that he had bought clothes for a year and a half, and needed to put up "a front" while looking for employment in the United States. Witness denied positively that he had had any connection with the theft of the hospital funds.

At the opening of the second day of the trial yesterday morning, Crown counsel produced Detective Sergeant William A. McBrayne to show that the distance from the place on Belleville Street, at which Kershaw was said to have been seen by the witness, Mr. Snedden, to the alcove where the Crown says Miss Vaughan handed the money over to the accused, was about 200 paces, and could be walked at a leisurely pace in two minutes.

COURT VIEWS SCENE
This led to a view of the scene by the court, which took place just before the luncheon recess. Mr. Justice Gregory led the party to the two places mentioned in the Crown's case. Miss Vaughan pointed out the place where she had told the court previously she had stood to hand over the money. This was in an alcove at 806 Humboldt Street. Mr. Snedden marked the place on the sidewalk on Belleville Street where he saw her overtake Kershaw on the day of the alleged robbery.

When the court had reassembled, Mrs. Marian Kershaw took the stand for the defense. Mrs. Kershaw told of being married to accused seven years ago, and said they had a son now six years old. Kershaw has always been a good provider, and had worked steadily when there was work to be found. There had been a difference of opinion between her husband and her husband as to his wanting to go to the United States, and this had led to her saying to the accused that if he left "it was for good," said witness.

Mrs. Kershaw denied that Kershaw had at any time absented himself from her home for any consecutive period of five days and nights, as alleged by Miss Vaughan. Her differences had been over his work, and Kershaw had never lacked in his duty to his family, testified his wife.

TIME FACTOR TRACED
Mrs. Kershaw was positive that her husband spent the morning of May 8 at their home, and said he had put in a load of wood with the help of their boy. After a lunch at home, he had lain down on a couch to rest, and did not leave the house until about 2 p.m., for the first time that day. He had returned before 5 p.m., for supper at the customary hour. At 7 o'clock that night Kershaw went to his mother's home on Harriet Road and had returned about 9:30 to his own home, said witness.

On the morning of May 9 at about 10 o'clock, Kershaw had left his home, saying he would call on the Attorney-General, said Mrs. Kershaw, and that, if he did not secure employment, he would leave the city. An argument had followed, in which witness said that if he left the city for the United States, it would be for good.

Dial System Will Be Explained at Provincial Exhibition in August

FLYING SQUADRON
TO VISIT HOMES

Plans for the instruction of the Victoria public regarding the use of the dial telephones which will be in use in Victoria late this year have been made by the British Columbia Telephone Company, according to an announcement by Mr. F. C. Paterson, district commercial superintendent.

The first demonstration of how the dial telephone system will operate will be at the Exhibition, which is to be held from August 18 to 23. Some of the intricate automatic equipment will be in operation, and trained demonstrators will be on hand to explain the apparatus and tell telephone users how to use the dial.

About the middle of September a group of instructors, known as the "flying squadron," will set out on the task of visiting the premises of every telephone subscriber for the purpose of explaining how to use the dial telephones. They will also make some tests of the telephone instruments. The "flying squadron" will

Representative Christopherson said at a dinner in Sioux Falls: "America, compared with other countries, is an earthly paradise, and when I hear Communistic growls I can't help thinking of Sandy McPherson."

"Sandy, the stone mason, was drawing $12 a day, but when his brother from the country asked him how he was situated he shook his head."

"But your job's a good one, ain't it?" said the brother.

"Sure is," said Sandy.

"How about the hours?"

"Short."

"And the work?"

"Pleasant."

"What's the trouble, then?"

"The wages—that's the trouble."

"But holy smoke—"

"The wages, that's the trouble," growled Sandy. "They're so darn high I can't ever afford to take a day off!"—Springfield Union.

SIR R. L. BORDEN
IS FELICITATED

Canada's Wartime Prime Minister
Receives Congratulations Upon
His Seventy-Sixth Birthday

SIR R. L. BORDEN

OTTAWA, Ont., June 28.—Canada's war-time Prime Minister, Sir Robert L. Borden, today celebrated his seventy-sixth birthday in good health. Kindly thoughts of persons in various parts of the Dominion were given expression in messages sent to Sir Robert's residence here.

It is ten years since Sir Robert, for considerations of health, resigned the premiership and also leadership of the Conservative party. He was more than entitled to a sojourn from political activity, in view of the tremendous responsibilities which had been his through the war days and in the settlement of the peace terms.

Sir Robert was born in the "Evangelical country," in 1854, in the historic village of Grand Pre.

X (Incredulously)—Did you say he was a prosperous farmer?

Y—Yes, he sold his acres to the golf club!

INJURIES TO YOUTH FATAL

Winston Barnett, 812 Monterey Avenue, Dies in Jubilee Hospital Following Accident

CHARGE IS LAID OF MANSLAUGHTER

At the request of defence counsel a remand until July 2 was granted in the Oak Bay police court yesterday morning in the case of Ira F. Smith, charged with manslaughter. The charge was laid following the death in the Jubilee Hospital at 2:25 o'clock yesterday morning of Winston Barnett, sixteen, 812 Monterey Avenue, who succumbed to injuries received in a collision with a truck driven by Smith on Wednesday afternoon. Ball was set at $10,000, in two sureties of $5,000 each.

Mr. H. G. S. Heisterman, counsel for the accused, before asking for a remand of the case, pointed out to the court that at the intersection of Granite Street and Poul Bay Road, where the accident occurred, there was a blind corner. He also informed the court that there appeared to be no evidence of glaring recklessness in the driving of the accused.

An inquest into the boy's death will be held at the B.C. Funeral Parlors at 10 o'clock this morning. The son of Mr. Harry Barnett, 812 Monterey Avenue, local surveyor for the Board of Marine Underwriters of San Francisco, Winston Barnett was born in this city. He was a graduate of Monterey Avenue School and at the time of his death was a pupil of the Oak Bay High School. Popular among his teachers and schoolfellows, the news of his sudden death came as a great shock and was received with much sorrow.

For the purpose of getting more complete details of the accident, which resulted in the death of young Barnett, Oak Bay police have asked that the driver of the Chrysler car on Granite Street at the time of the accident communicate with them. This request was made last night by Chief Syme.

KILL PANTHER WITH BLOWS OF AN OAR IN MIDDLE OF LAKE

NANAIMO, June 26.—Mr. William Hancock and his son, Alf, had a very unusual experience at Second Nanaimo Lake this morning when they killed a panther in the water by blows with an oar.

Mr. Hancock and his son were on the water fishing when they noticed the animal swimming some distance from their boat, and had quite a struggle before they were able to dispatch the animal.

MRS. B. M. DOBESON BURIED AT NANAIMO

The funeral took place at Nanaimo last Sunday of the late Mrs. Barbara Maddison Dobeson, from St. Paul's Church, with Rev. Canon Hitchcock officiating. The I.O.G.E. marched in a body in the procession, and representatives of the Canadian Red Cross Society and the Nanaimo Local Council of Women were present. Interment took place at Nanaimo Cemetery.

Mrs. Dobeson, who was forty years a resident in Nanaimo, leaves to mourn her loss Mrs. Elizabeth Dobeson, of Nanaimo; Mrs. Barker, of Nanaimo; Mrs. Paul Michelin, of Victoria; Mr. J. W. Dobeson, of Nanaimo, and Mr. J. O. Dobeson, of Victoria.

Obituary

HUDSON.—The funeral of Mrs. Ada Martha Hudson, who passed away in this city on Tuesday, was held yesterday afternoon, from the S.J. Curry & Son Funeral Home, to the Metropolitan United Church, where service was held at 2:30 o'clock. There were many friends present and beautiful floral tributes were received. Rev. Dr. W. J. Sippell conducted an impressive service, during which the hymns, "The King of Love" and "Rock of Ages" were sung. Mrs. A. Dowell rendered as a solo, "The Homeland." The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Messrs. Joseph Dowell, Charles H. Bradshaw, George Smedhurst, William Pearmain, Charles Schofield and Thomas Cleasby. Interment was made in the family plot at the Royal Oak Burial Park.

BARNETT.—There passed away in this city, at the Jubilee Hospital, on June 26, Albert Winston Barnett, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Barnett, of 812 Monterey Avenue, Oak Bay, aged sixteen years, and born in Victoria, B.C. He is survived by his mother and father, two sisters residing in Victoria. The remains are resting at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, from where the funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon, at 1:45, proceeding to St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, where service will be conducted by Rev. Canon Nixon at 2 o'clock. Interment will take place in Rose Bay Cemetery.

SWINDELL.—There passed away on Thursday afternoon, at the family residence, 131 Ladysmith Street, Thomas Walker Swindell, aged twenty-five years. Mr. Swindell was born in Belfast, Ireland, and had resided in Victoria for the last three years. He is mourned by Mrs. Swindell and infant son; also his father and mother and sister and brother in Belfast. The remains are resting at McGill Bros. Funeral Home. Announcement of the time of the funeral will be made later.

UNEMPLOYMENT FIGURES

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Unemployment figures issued by the Census Bureau today indicated that 574,647 persons were out of work in April in territory comprising approximately a fourth of the country with an estimated population of 29,264,460.

Small Sum Needed for Playgrounds

The Summer playground supervision fund is within $200 of its final objective, but that sum must be raised by 4 p.m. today if action is to be secured in time to bring in effective operation of the plan this year. It was stated last evening by Mr. Vivian Shoemaker, boys' work secretary of the Y.M.C.A. The city has voted $500 towards the fund; the service clubs of the city a further $225, and $75 has been received from private subscriptions. Part of the $800 thus obtained is conditional on the raising of a further $300, to give a total of $800 required for the operation of the scheme this year. Those in charge of the plan feel that this need will only have to be drawn to the attention of the public to have the balance of the fund completed by this afternoon. Organized play, to add to the attraction of city parks for children, and at the same time to keep them away from dangerous traffic ways on the streets, are the chief aims of the plan which is being successfully operated in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and the leading centres of the Dominion.

Seagulls' Nests Prey to Plunder By Thoughtless

Robbing of birds' nests, particularly those of the gulls, is a menace to the breeding season of the gulls in this district. Complaints have been made by naturalists of the depredations of boys. The Oak Bay police have taken a part in the attempt to protect the birds' nests, and a recent case led to detection of the marauders. As the subject lies within the purview of the Dominion statutes, under the Migratory Birds' Act, the attention of the enforcement officers will be called to the subject.

The proclamation of sanctuaries fails to deter some of the egg hunters from plundering nests of the gregarious birds whose habitat is in these waters. Another angle of this situation occupied the authorities about a year ago, when it was alleged that American collectors were removing eggs without authority, of rarer birds, but the trouble was quickly checked.

FIRST AIR CONTEST WON BY SHOP TEAM

WINNIPEG, June 26.—Winnipeg shop team No. 2 won the final contest for Western lines in the Canadian Pacific Railway centre, St. John Ambulance Association annual competition, held in Calgary Y.M.C.A. Gymnasium. The winning team will go to Montreal to compete with the winners of the Eastern division some time this fall, when the final competition for the Dominion will be held.

Dr. W. E. Saunders, Calgary, was assisted as judge by E. C. Noble, of Winnipeg, secretary and instructor for the association. The shield for the Western division, held last year by a team from Nelson, B.C., was presented to the winners by Andrew Halkett, general superintendent of the Alberta division, at a meeting in the sunroom of the Palliser Hotel. The Dominion winners will be awarded the Lord Shaugnessy championship challenge cup, held for 1929-1930 by the Windsor Street team at Montreal.

Sheriff and Marshal Are Killed by Thief

WASHINGTON, Iowa, June 26.—Sheriff Fred Sweet, of Washington County, and Night Marshal Aaron Bailey were shot and killed early today by an automobile thief they had arrested.

The thief was taken to Sheriff Sweet's office and questioned. When the sheriff started to search him preparatory to locking him up, the prisoner threw him aside, drew a pistol and shot Marshal Bailey dead. He then emptied the weapon at the sheriff, four bullets striking the body and a fifth entering the eye.

The thief fled another officer

PUPILS WIN MANY AWARDS

Saanich Schools Complete Exceedingly Successful Year and Show High Standard

"ROLLS OF HONOR" GAINED BY MANY

A most successful school year is reported throughout the Municipality of Saanich, the pupils showing in every case a high standard of excellence. The promotion lists of Royal Oak, Lake Hill, McKenzie Avenue and Craigflower are now ready for publication.

Royal Oak School has completed a successful year. A number of pupils have learned the art of swimming in the swimming classes which have been conducted by the school. Others who could already swim have become proficient in the artificial respiration of persons. The school year will be formally closed with a picnic, for the senior grades, on Saturday, June 28.

City & District

To Clean Foul Bay Beach—The Oak Bay Council last night decided to co-operate with the City Council in cleaning the rubbish off the beach of Foul Bay.

Bank Clearing—Clearings at the Victoria Clearing House for the week ending yesterday were $2,532,401, compared with $2,688,901 in the corresponding week of 1929.

Declared Public Highway—Following upon a dispute arising as to the ownership of the Esplanade at the Willows, the Oak Bay Council last night received the opinion of the municipal solicitor that this was undoubtedly a public highway.

Two New Stores—A permit was issued at the City Hall yesterday for the alteration of premises at 1124 Broad Street to provide for two stores, an ice cream and soft drink establishment and a fuel office. The permit was issued to Mr. W. Cameron for work to be carried out by Mr. R. Hetherington at a cost of $450.

Liberal Organisation—A meeting of the workers in the Liberal ranks of Ward Two was held last evening for the purpose of enlisting the campaign workers available in the interests of Mr. Stuart Henderson, the Liberal candidate for the House of Commons in the forthcoming election. The ward reports that there is a good number of recruits to the workers and that the outlook from their standpoint is bright.

Abolishes School District—Notice is given in the British Columbia Gazette that from the date of July 1 the Plantagenet School District has been abolished. This was a union of some four school districts in the vicinity of Cobble Hill into a consolidated district. Later, questions arose as to the regularity of the proceedings under which it was created, and the department has decided to abolish the consolidation. The establishment of such a district is in the hands of the various districts concerned.

Agassiz-Rosedale Ferry—Tenders were opened yesterday afternoon by Mr. G. P. Napier, assistant chief engineer of the department, in the absence of the Minister, Hon. N. S. Leach, for the construction of the ferry boat to be used on the Agassiz-Rosedale run across the Fraser. There were three tenders put in all from the Mainland. These were as follows: Vulcan Engineering Works, Vancouver, $52,558; Burrard Drydock Company, North Vancouver, $50,750; Premier Aircraft Ltd., Vancouver, $67,900. The tenders will be checked up by the officials of the department before the award is made.

CLASSIFICATION OF SAANICH ROADS

Arrangements Are Made With Department of Public Works Regarding Primary Roads

A by-law for the ratification of an agreement with the Department of Public Works for the classification of Benevento Avenue and Keating Crossroad as primary roads, and the substitution of Keating Crossroad as a secondary highway, was given its third reading last night by the Saanich Council.

The council was notified also of the receipt of special grant of $1,800 from the Department of Education for relief of taxpayers in educational areas.

A grant of $25 to the British Columbia Safety League was made by members of the council.

A by-law prohibiting the building of auto camps without first securing the permission of the council was given its final reading.

RIGHTS ARE SOUGHT

Two Applications for Power Purses Sought on Goat River

There is the prospect that the controller of water in the province is to have a knotty question to settle with regard to water for power purposes, for which rival applicants are appearing near Creston. The water which it is proposed to utilize is some 200 second feet to be drawn from Goat River.

MORE FAMILIES TO GET HOLIDAY

Second Party of Mothers and Children Arrived Yesterday at Sunshine Camp, Sooke

The Social Service League yesterday took out the second party of mothers and children to the Sunshine camp at Saanichton, to enjoy a fortnight's holiday. The party comprises ten mothers and thirty-one children, who will take up practically the entire accommodation at the camp. Needless to say the mothers and children who have been at the camp for the past fortnight came back to the city very refreshed, although greatly benefited by the rest, change and wholesome food.

The camp continues to find good friends in unexpected quarters as well as among old benefactors. The Victoria unit of the Army and Navy Veterans has recently given a very handsome cheque, as seen below, for the erection and furnishing of a cottage. The building is under erection, and will be ready for occupation in a few days' time.

A donation of pretty blue for use by the very small children has been sent by the Opechee Sunday School class of Christ Church, and the Junior W. of M. of St. Mathias Church. More money is needed for the support of the camp, and contributions are invited, to be left at Room 45, Arcade Building.

The following donations are gratefully acknowledged: Previously acknowledged, $220.60; Mrs. J. Dunsmuir, $100; Mrs. J. Macdonell, $50; Canadian Daughters' League, $5; Friend, $5; Mrs. W. M. Allan, $10; Mrs. William Grant, $5; Friend, $10; Mrs. Clubb, $5; A. Well Wisher, $5; E. J. C. Smith, $5; Mrs. Mary Palmer, $5; Mrs. Grace Corcoran, $10; B.C. Telephone, $100; Augusta A. Wilson, $20; Arthur H. Patterson, $10; Mrs. Crow Baker, $10; Miss Agnes Kenny, $5; A. G. Pigott, $50; Kitty B. Oldham, $5; Army & Navy Veterans, Victoria Unit, $237.

SAANICH TO VOTE ON GARBAGE PLAN

July 12, Polling Day for New By-Law—Filling Meetings to Precede Election

Saanich electors will go to the polls on Saturday, July 12, to vote on By-Law No. 448 for the purpose of creating a garbage collecting system in certain parts of the municipality. Polling will be from 8 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock at night. Mr. R. R. F. Sewell, municipal clerk, was named returning officer, while Tommie School is to be the polling station.

Public meetings in support of the project will be held on July 7 at Tillamook School, and on July 9 at Cloverdale School.

The by-law deals with Ward Two, a small portion of Ward One and most of Ward Seven.

HON. R. H. POOLEY WILL OPEN PARTY

Owing to the absence of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss Mackenzie, Hon. R. H. Pooley, M.P., accompanied by Mrs. Pooley, will open the garden party at Government House tomorrow, arranged by the Boy Scouts' Association. On his arrival at 3 p.m., he will be received in the hall of Government House by Mesdames Bissell and Shaw, of the Ladies' Auxiliary; Assistant District Commissioners Hartley, Wise and Hillard; Mr. A. B. Sanders, president of the association, and Mrs. W. C. Nichol, commissioner of Girl Guides. The proceedings will commence with the flag breaking, after which the Wolf Cubs will give the grand howl and various Scout and Cub displays will follow. There will be a golf, the "magic carpet," and spinning wheel.

FRENCH GOVT WINS VICTORY

PARIS, June 26.—Premier Andre Tardieu's Government won a victory today in its first fight with the opposition since the Easter recess, carrying a vote of confidence, 330 to 262.

The vote came about when Socialists made a strong attack on the Government, accusing it of depleting the treasury. M. Vincent Auriol and M. Leon Blum, Socialist leaders, demanded an investigation of the treasury's condition by a special committee.

Do not say, "Oh, I am too old to bother!" The older we are the more we have to bother! Or else what in the world should we become like? Weigh in the effort a purely selfish one. For the sake of one's husband, one's children, one's grandchildren, one should look one's best.

BAPTIST WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS

Sixteenth Annual Convention Held at Kerrisdale—Reports for Year Read

VANCOUVER, June 26.—One hundred delegates from the provincial constituencies of the Baptist Church in British Columbia attended the opening meeting of the sixteenth annual convention of Baptist women at Kerrisdale Church. Mrs. C. Spofford, provincial president, occupied the chair, and Mrs. A. C. Bingham led the opening prayer.

Committees were appointed as follows: Credentials, Mrs. A. J. Welch, Mrs. Angus Galbraith, Mrs. Lloyd Craig; courtesy, Mrs. H. G. Estabrook, Mrs. H. R. Boyer and Mrs. L. Pallot; press, Mrs. F. Macneil, Mrs. F. W. McKinnon, Mrs. H. McDermid, Mrs. W. V. Davies, Mrs. Angus Galbraith and Mrs. W. C. Kelly.

The finance committee report was read by Mrs. Robert Robertson, and the one which concerned the activities of the year by Mrs. Angus Galbraith. The latter stated that there were now 903 women working in various circles.

Mrs. F. W. McKinnon, of Victoria, conducted the devotional period. Greetings were extended by Rev. G. A. Reynolds, pastor of the entertaining church.

During a recent first showing of a movie in a Broadway theatre in New York, Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford and the Talmadge sisters were present in person, and autograph collectors were crowding down the aisles toward the stage.

"Why don't you get the autograph of that white-haired gentleman in the fifth row?" said a newspaper man to one of them.

"Who is he?" inquired the girl excitedly.

"Only General Pershing," she smiled in mingled mirth and pity.

"Signatures of soldiers don't mean anything to us."

Suggestions When Bride Announces Great Event to Her Friends—Menus Recommended

CLOTHES CLOSET SHOWER IDEA

June is the bride's own month, the one that she chooses from all the rest of the year as her wedding month. But before the engagement ring is worn in public, the bride-to-be often announces her betrothal to her intimate friends at a luncheon or dinner. She chooses an original and surprising way of telling her secret, serves a delicious meal, and in general does all she can to make it a memorable affair.

PLANNING SHOWERS

After the announcement, showers must be expected, but, of course, not by the bride elect, for the fun is spoiled if by any chance the element of surprise. So let us tell you first of a charming way of announcing an engagement at a luncheon and next of a delightfully new sort of shower bridge.

WOMEN TO DECIDE BATTLE OF POLLS

Writer Says Federal Election Depends Principally on the Female Vote

(Canadian Press)

TORONTO, June 26.—Beasle Gowen Ferguson sums up the Canadian political situation, as far as women are concerned, in this wise: "One decade ago the women of Canada were accorded the franchise, and now, in the third election since that eventful event in the progress of the Dominion, it looks as though the battle of the ballots in Ontario would be fought and won by the women voters. Women have been accused of lack of interest in politics. They have also been credited with being the best workers and referred to as the electors who, like the privates in the army, bore the brunt of the battle."

The women who have been sitting at the foot of the gods, who have been studying, learning and 'feeling their way,' seem at last to have arrived with all the accoutrements of political warriors and promise to carry the battle into the hustings in so vigorous a way that the political meeting without the guidance hand or convincing tongue of a woman will be the exception. With Miss Agnes Macphail and Mrs. F. S. Greenwood in the field as candidates and other prominent women politicians, including two well-known Toronto ladies, as likely candidates, the women have taken courage. The Ontario Liberal women have set up an organization to pool their organization resources with the men, and already fifty women have volunteered for speaking and organization work in Ontario. In communities where there are women's Conservative associations and clubs, they are joining with the riding organization to work the constituency, win elections to the side of the party led by Hon. R. B. Bennett and on election day to get out the vote.

"Not to be outdone by their Liberal sisters, the Conservative women are pooling their organization resources with the men, and already fifty women have volunteered for speaking and organization work in Ontario. In communities where there are women's Conservative associations and clubs, they are joining with the riding organization to work the constituency, win elections to the side of the party led by Hon. R. B. Bennett and on election day to get out the vote."

It is better to make a couple happy and marry them with proper ceremonies and in a proper place, than to force them to be married in an unhappy manner and by a method or in a place we do not approve of."

A very enjoyable picnic was held last Wednesday evening when the Victoria Ladies' Choir was entertained by Mrs. Kent and Mrs. Llewellyn Jones at their summer camp at Cordova Bay. During the evening Miss Beal presented Mrs. McLaurin with a pair of candlesticks on behalf of the choir, after which an impromptu programme was given around a bonfire on the beach. Solos were given by Mrs. Butterfield, Mrs. Watt and Mrs. Llewellyn Jones, and Mr. Beckwith gave several humorous readings. The choir is disbanded for the summer months, and rehearsals will be resumed on Tuesday, September 16.

READY TO MARRY DIVORCED PEOPLE

But Dr. Inkster Believes Law Is at Fault—Makes Best of a Bad Job

TORONTO, June 26.—While he is emphatically opposed to it, and believes there should be drastic prohibition of the practice, Rev. Dr. J. O. Inkster sees no use in tilting at windmills by refusing to remarry divorced persons when it is fully permitted under present laws. In a recent sermon Rev. Dr. Inkster denounced easy divorce, and declared the law should make adultery the only reason for divorce, and also, on that basis, prevent divorced persons from remarrying.

The minister married the other day, a man and woman both of whom had been divorced for other causes than adultery. Questioned, he said: "I believe the law is all wrong, in that it permits divorce for too many causes, too easily in other ways, and allows divorced persons to marry again. I will do all in my power to get it changed. But, in the meantime, what is the use of butting against a stone wall? Certainly I know the couple were divorced. But under the law they are divorced. If I refused to marry them, they would get somebody else, or, what I consider still worse, get married by a magistrate. Marriages should be performed with religious ceremonies."

"With the law the way it is, we can only make the best of a bad job, performing ceremonies sanctioned by the law, even if we disagree with it. It is better to make a couple happy and marry them with proper ceremonies and in a proper place, than to force them to be married in an unhappy manner and by a method or in a place we do not approve of."

DECISION IN LATIMER CASE IS RESERVED

VANCOUVER, June 26.—Decision was reserved by Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald, in Supreme Court today, on the appeal of Dr. Victor E. Latimer, Pentleton, against the order of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of British Columbia, raising his name from the register of the college for alleged unprofessional conduct.

His Lordship intimated that he might be able to decide before Monday whether he would send the case back to the Medical Council for further information as to the meaning of the findings.

The appeal occupied the attention of the court for three days, lengthy arguments and long questions of evidence taken at the camera inquiry being given by counsel on both sides.

The Medical Council, according to the findings, held the physician guilty of administering narcotic drugs to Mrs. Helen Oliver, wife of Charles Oliver, Pentleton, son of the late Premier John Oliver, during the absence of her husband in Europe. The allegation was that the drugs were administered for improper purposes.

Dr. Latimer's suspension had been held in abeyance pending the result of the present proceedings. He is an ear, nose and throat specialist.

Mrs. Oliver, the evidence showed, consulted the physician in regard to her right ear, she expressing fear that she might become deaf.

Mr. G. L. Fraser, counsel for Dr. Latimer, contended there was no seduction in the case. If it was a case of drugs, then the case of seduction must be dismissed, he declared.

Mr. Harold B. Robertson, K.C., counsel for the Medical Council, said Mrs. Oliver was a normally happy woman of thirty-five until she came under the influence of Dr. Latimer, but when her husband returned she was a wreck, physically and mentally.

FIVE VACATION SCHOOLS DATED

Following Last Summer's Success First Gathering for Children to Open Wednesday

Following up the gratifying success of last summer's venture, three daily vacation Bible schools will be held here during the next two months. Metropolitan and First United will join forces at the Metropolitan school, Fairview will gather in its neighborhood children some time in August and the Oriental Home will cater to the Asiatic children of the city.

With Mrs. M. C. Wilkinson in charge of the juniors and Mrs. Nasmith of the primary children, the Metropolitan-First United school will give a fortnight's course every day but Saturday, from 9:15 to 11:45 a.m., beginning July 2. Other helpers among the vacation department are Mrs. Hutton, Miss Genevieve Knapp and Miss Barbara Daniels.

Miss Lohman, of the First United Church, will assist the primary department. The popularity of last year's school was shown in the rise from the first day's enrollment of seventeen to ninety at the close. A large attendance is expected this year.

Sponsored by the generosity of the Victoria Young People of the United Church, vacation schools will also be held at Port Alberni and Port Alberni. These will be conducted in both departments by Mrs. Wilkinson.

By way of preparation for the summer's activities, Miss Copthorne, of Vancouver, on Tuesday gave an evening of instruction in vacation school methods to those who are taking part at the various centres.

New Minister Takes Hold of Duties of Post

VANCOUVER, June 26.—Hon. Ian Mackenzie, newest member of the Cabinet of Premier Mackenzie King, is already taking hold of his departmental duties, although at long range.

Mr. F. C. Blair, Assistant Deputy Minister of Colonization, is on his way from Ottawa to lay a number of urgent departmental matters before the new minister for his consideration and action. He will arrive Saturday, it is expected.

Mr. G. Heidman, former private secretary to Senator H. H. King, who has obtained a wide acquaintance in British Columbia in recent years, has been engaged by Captain Mackenzie in a similar capacity and has been dispatched to Ottawa on business.

Production Can Be Increased in Vernon District

VERNON, June 26.—According to Mr. A. T. Howe, president of the Vernon Board of Trade, production can be greatly increased in the Vernon district.

The 900 acres of Glass "A" orchard land last year produced fruit valued at $792,023.05; the 800 acres of vegetable lands produced $309,390.30, and the by-products brought $27,092.08. This it is apparent that the total wealth produced from this comparatively small area, making only a small allowance for the value of the express shipments, would easily total $1,128,505.

Thousands of acres can be put into production when water for irrigation is available, it is said.

Big League Baseball
GROOVE BALL
INSIDE BALL

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher New York Giants)
There is an old saying among major league ball players about "hitting the ball where it is." This means that a right-handed hitter should pull balls pitched into to left field, hit grooves balls back through the pitcher and hit outside balls to right field. A left-handed hitter of course would do just the opposite.

Many right-hand batters make the mistake of trying to pull balls pitched outside to left field. They lose most of their power in doing this and it usually results in an easy infield ground. Many an otherwise good hitter has been spoiled by trying to pull every ball pitched to him whether it was inside or outside the plate.

By adapting your hitting to where the pitcher throws the ball to you, you become a batter who hits to all fields and the outfielders do not know where to play for you. This greatly increases your chances of hitting safely. The batter who can hit to only one field is at the mercy of the pitcher and outfielders.

Hitting to all fields is a big reason for Rogers Hornsby's success as a hitter. He hits long and sharp to either left, center or right field, depending upon where the pitcher pitches the ball to him.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

The Airplane That Flies Faster at 10,000 Feet Than at Sea Level—This airplane uses a Wasp super-charged engine. The super-charger delivers air to the engine at sea level atmospheric pressure, thus enabling it to "breathe" as normally in rarified atmosphere as at sea level. Thus, at 10,000 feet, because the wind resistance is only three-fourths as great as on the ground, the plane makes greater speed since the engine is not affected by the altitude. Planes without super-chargers would travel slower at 10,000 feet than at sea level, as engine power drops off faster in altitude than air resistance to the plane.

England Will Meet Aussies in Second Cricket Test Today

Several Changes Expected in Line-Ups of Squads for Match at Lords—Critics Want Hammond and Woolley Dropped

LONDON, June 26.—Sure of fine crowds, as all the reserved seats have been sold, the second cricket test match between England and Australia will get under way at Lord's tomorrow morning. England won the first match at Trent Bridge by ninety-three runs, after four days of tense cricket, which left the last day in doubt right up to bedtime on the last day.

The eleven which will carry the burden of representing England had not been named as yet today. It is known, however, that one great test match figure, Herbert Sutcliffe, who has figured in so many great openings stands with Jack Hobbs, who is believed to be likely. Three excellent players, Archie Jackson, E. A. Beckett, and A. Hurwood were not named in Trent Bridge. Any one of these three might be given a chance tomorrow.

The final choice of both teams will likely depend on the weather tomorrow.

FRANK O'DOUL IS BACK IN BIG SIX
Heavy-Hitting Phil's Outfielder Rejoins Select Half Dozen—Has .400 Mark

The Big Six was left with only one member from outside the state of Pennsylvania today as Frank O'Doul, of the Phillies, finally slugged his way back into the organization, displacing Bill Terry. That one is Babe Ruth, who holds last place but did his share of the slugging yesterday, getting two hits in four tries for a two-point increase. O'Doul crashed out three hits in seven times up in the heavy hitting day to go into fourth place with a .400 average.

Miss Leeming, who ranks number one in British Columbia, is a member of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club.

SEA FLEAS TO COMPETE IN BIG EVENT

Forty-Mile Race to Be Held on July 1 Under Joint Auspices of Sons of Canada and J.B.A.A.

Leading "sea flea" operators will be seen in action here on July 1 in the forty-mile race being staged under the joint auspices of the Sons of Canada and the J.B.A.A. The course will be from the Gorge bridge to the Canadian National Bridge and back with the speedy little craft covering twenty-five laps.

The "fleas" will be divided into two classes, "B" and "C," with competitors in either class being eligible for the major prize. A number of valuable prizes have been donated for the event. The complete list of entries follows:

"C" Class—Ralph Bagley, It. Victoria; Jack Smith, Auto Repair, Victoria; Joe Broadwell, Lady Luck, Victoria; Bill Dillabough, Misses Frequently, Victoria; Cliff Lupton, Miss De Soto, Victoria; Jim Driscoll, Dick, Victoria; Denzel Edwards, My Baby, Port Angeles; Jim Greig, White Heat, Port Angeles; George Huenzler, Spook, Port Angeles, and Jimmy Loughhead, Dorothy, Victoria.

"B" Class—Joe Wheeler, Miss Indian, Victoria; J. Mitchell, Sad News, Victoria; Fred Francis, Victoria; Bob Shanks, Victoria, and Dick Jackson, Miss Angeles, Port Angeles.

Shepherd Sets New Record at Nanaimo Links

NANAIMO, June 26.—Arthur Shepherd, until recently Pro. at the Quilchena Golf Club, and at present attached to the Nanaimo Golf Club, is the first golfer ever to turn in a par score on the local links, since they were opened about eight years ago. Several British Columbia professionals and leading amateurs have played the course, but not one of them succeeded in cracking, or even equalling par. Shepherd set this record and just as soon as the weather clears up, he is going after a 66. Playing the night with Dr. Margeson he played the course in 68 with the following card:

Out 4 4 3 4 3 3 4 4 3—32
In 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4—36—68

Betty Nuthall Advances At Wimbledon Net Meet

Nineteen-Year-Old British Star Defeats Mrs. Jameson in Straight Sets—Favorites Advance En Masse—Bobby Jones Watches Matches

WIMBLEDON, England, June 26.—A mixed fare of doubles and women's singles was served Wimbledon's tennis crowds today with the Americans maintaining the pace that swept their stars through the early rounds of the singles competition. With British nobility and Bobby Jones, king of the golf world, looking on from the royal box, the invaders from across the Atlantic swept through seven doubles and two singles matches.

Miss Mary Greif, of Kansas City, was eliminated, falling before Miss S. Payot, Swiss champion, 4-6, 4-3. Miss Elizabeth Ryan, who has been winning women's and mixed doubles titles at Wimbledon for the last fifteen years, appeared in two matches with all her strokes unimpaired. Taking on Miss Josane Sigart, Belgium's ranking star, in one of the few singles matches played today, Miss Ryan won 6-3, 6-4. The Belgian player started well against the American veteran, who makes her home in England, leading 2-1 in the first set, mainly keeping her opponent back with well placed drives. Miss Ryan drew level, however, by pounding the Belgian's forehead. Having faltered, Miss Sigart faded rapidly as Miss Ryan took the second set.

Miss Ryan also partnered with Mrs. Helen Wills Moody to win two rounds, winning 6-3, 6-0 over Miss J. Stanley, Great Britain. As both Miss Ryan and Jacobs are in the same half of the draw they may meet in the semi-final round.

Players selected to represent the local club follow:
Mrs. Jack Clark, Florence Symes, Dorothy Symes, Grace Shuggett, Mrs. Charles Moss, Mrs. M. Stewart, Mrs. A. M. Perrins, George Howland, William Peden, Jack Clark, A. M. Perrins, W. E. Quilty, Bert Talack, J. McCutcheon and P. A. Adderley.

Gordon Eliminated After Lengthy Reign In Great Encounter

Final Score Is 6-2, 10-8—Mary Campbell Wins Way to Finals by Victory Over Mrs. Edwards—Open Doubles Thrilling

A new men's singles champion will be crowned at the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club this year as a result of J. C. Edwards' victory over Marsh Gordon, defending titleholder, yesterday. Gordon had reigned supreme at the Willows courts for several years, and only relinquished his crown after one of the best duels of the tournament so far.

Edwards' fine victory gives him the right to meet Don Campbell for the championship tomorrow. Yesterday's match provided a big crowd of spectators with some great tennis. Edwards won the first set 6-2, but the score hardly tells of the closeness of the game. Edwards' fine volleying and aggressive service being main factors in his first set victory.

The second and deciding battle was a battle royal from start to finish, and went to Edwards 10-8. The pair stood 8-11 after some brilliant displays, and six more games found the pair deadlocked at 8-8. From here the contenders battled with neither player having any great margin in any of the games. Edwards made it 9-8 and then took the last game to dethrone the veteran Gordon.

Saturday's final between Don Campbell and Edwards is expected to be a thriller, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand, and to witness the final match.

FORMER CHAMP ADVANCES
Mary Campbell, former British Columbia champion, won her way to the finals when she disposed of Mrs. Edwards in straight sets, 6-1, 6-4. Miss Campbell played a steady game throughout and deserved her victory. She will meet the winner of today's match between Gordon and Edwards in the final tomorrow.

One of the features of the day was the great battles put up in the men's open doubles. Hocking and Cunningham had a splendid series of matches, winning 6-1, 7-5, but the other two matches proved anything but so decisive.

Three sets were necessary before Phillips and Kirkbride could shake off the threat of Corfield and Edwards 3-6, 6-3, 6-3, while the power of Cunningham's second set, a 6-1, was a real test for the pair. The latter set was the longest and hardest fought of the tournament so far.

Doreen Swayne put up a great battle against Helen Campbell in the women's handicap singles, but her handicap proved a little too severe for the strong play of her opponent. The second set, which Miss Campbell won 13-11, equalled the endurance mark set in the men's open doubles earlier in the day.

Men's Handicap Doubles
J. D. Campbell and Isaacs (minus 20.5) defeated Witter and Ware (plus 15.3), 6-4, 6-1.

Men's Open Singles
J. C. Edwards defeated D. M. Gordon, 6-2, 10-8.

Women's Open Singles
Miss M. Campbell defeated Mrs. Edwards, 6-1, 6-4.

Women's Handicap Singles
Miss M. Campbell (minus 15-3) defeated Miss Doreen Swayne (minus 30), 6-2, 13-11.

Mixed Handicap Doubles
Miss D. Rines and T. Christie (plus 3-6) defeated Mrs. J. Campbell, 6-2, 10-8.

Watchorn, a husky youngster, who knows his pitching, will go to London and his fight with Phil Scott, July 5, "Pa" Stribling announced today after a transatlantic telephone conversation with Jeff Dickson, promoter of the bout. He said the fight would be on July 28 as originally scheduled.

Although Stribling's left hand still is in a plaster cast, he hopes soon to be able to use the fist that knocked out Otto Von Porat in Chicago last week.

"Pa" Stribling at first had sought a postponement of the Scott bout due to the condition of his son's hand.

ELKS TO MEET UP-ISLANDERS

Combined Nanaimo-Courtenay Baseball Nine Will Perform in Twin Bill Here Tomorrow

VISITORS WILL FIELD GOOD TEAM

ELKS present leaders, the Senior Amateur Baseball League pennant race, are promising a strong squad in their opposition tomorrow at Royal Athletic Park, when they meet the Courtenay team.

The afternoon game will start at 2:45 o'clock and the night game at 7:30 o'clock.

6:15 o'clock, "Fat" Edmunds, who is managing the Up-Island club, has sent word along that he is bringing a strong squad in hopes of taking both games, and has secured some of Courtenay's players to strengthen his club. At the present time Nanaimo occupies second place in the Up-Island League, with three victories and one loss to their credit.

With the privilege of drawing from the visitors who should treat out a sweet club.

STAR SPRINTERS TO RUN AT VANCOUVER

Williams, Simpson
And Tolan to Hook
Up in Feature Race

Galaxy of Stars Will Appear at Hastings Park
Meet on July 1—Strong Victoria Contingent to Compete in Various Events

VANCOUVER, June 26.—Preparations for the international track and field meet at Hastings Park, here, July 1, Dominion Day, are rapidly nearing completion. George Simpson, Ohio state flash, one of the Big Three, who will compete in a special 100-yard event, is already here, along with Percy Williams, Vancouver's Olympic champion, while Eddie Tolan, dusky Michigan star, is on his way to Vancouver. These three, all of whom rank as topnotchers in the sprinting game, will hook up in the special event. Others who will compete against Williams, Tolan and Simpson are Hables, San Francisco Olympic Club, and Foster, of Washington State University. Loveridge, of Pacific College, Stockton, Calif., is also an entry.

Poster, Hables, Tolan and Loveridge will also compete in the 220-yard event. Neither Williams nor Simpson have entered the furlong sprint.

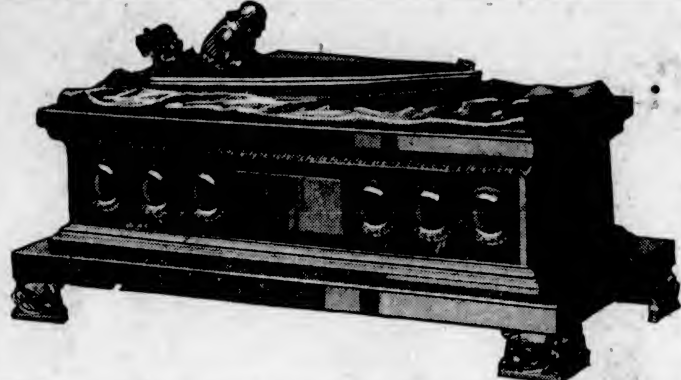

Tommy Herd, star Vancouver A.C. miler, heads a brilliant entry list for the mile event. His chief competition will come from Rufus Kiser.

Seattle; Clarke of Washington State College, and Aldous, of the Victoria Y.M.C.A. Herman Brix, former Washington star, now of Los Angeles, and Chief John Cameron, of the New Westminster police force, will probably fight it out in the various weight events, all of which have drawn heavy entry lists. Jessup, captain of the University of Washington track and field team, is also among those entered in the weight events.

The pole vault will be a featured event with such entries as Edmunds, San Francisco Olympic Club; Herron, Washington State College; Leinhardt, Washington State College; Robinson, Oregon, and Nichols, Washington Athletic Club.

The San Francisco Olympic Club, the Vancouver A.C., and the Victoria Y.M.C.A., will fight it out in the mile relay. The high jump has drawn Stewart, Los Angeles Athletic Club; Coggeshall, San Francisco Olympic Club; Herron, Washington State; Leinhardt, Washington State; Gordon, Washington State; McNaughton, Vancouver; Edmunds, San Francisco Olympic Club, and Fell, Victoria Y.M.C.A.

Fine Trophy Donated for Outboard Races

THIS is the Lord Wakefield Challenge Trophy, which R. Hon. Lord Wakefield of Hythe has presented to the Canadian National Exhibition for annual competition by outboard motor boats. The trophy, which is singularly beautiful, is composed of solid silver and black and grey onyx. At Lord Wakefield's own request, it was designed and built by Canadian silversmiths, and is regarded as being one of the most striking trophies ever produced. In presenting this trophy Lord Wakefield stipulated that it would be for competition amongst all boats entered by any members of the British Empire, so that the contest might be termed an Empire free-for-all. The C.N.E. race committee has announced that it will be for Class "C" and will be a fifteen-mile race open to all Canadian or British drivers, driving Canadian or British-owned outboards. The winner will be given possession of the trophy for one year and he will also receive a small trophy which will be his permanent property. Lord Wakefield is founder and head of C. C. Wakefield & Co., Limited, producers of Castrol, with branches and offices throughout the world.

Cornell Oarsmen Win Great Upset Victory

Defeat Largest Fleet in History of U.S. Intercollegiate Regatta by Three Lengths—Much-Touted Washington Crew Finishes Sixth

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y., June 26.—In one of the most spectacular, dramatic comebacks the Hudson has ever known, Cornell's big red crew made a show of the greatest fleet in intercollegiate regatta history this afternoon, winning the four-mile varsity race for the first time in twenty-five years to rule again the waves that the Ithacans dominated so long in the palm days of the late Charles E. (Pop) Courtney.

Struck by a nineteen-year-old sophomore, Robert M. Wilson, Montclair, N.J., pacing the first big college race of his career as a sub, Cornell fought off a smashing charge by Syracuse to win by three good lengths.

Back in the ruck, splashing and fighting through water that was almost as rough as the heavy seas of 1929, favorite after favorite dropped from the running after a mile and a half of racing that left the race as open as the broad reaches of the river.

Massachusetts Tech, hanging on gamely, finished third, six lengths behind Syracuse, which was three lengths ahead of California, which was fourth.

Two lengths behind the golden bears came Columbia, 1929 champions, in fifth place, while Washington, hitherto unbeaten and the outstanding favorite of the fleet, finished sixth. The Huskies were three lengths in front of Pennsylvania, which in turn had a length and a half over Wisconsin.

Trailing at the shipping a big load of water over the last mile and a half the highly touted Naval Academy eight, favorite of the East, sank a hundred yards from the finish.

Cornell also scored a victory in the three-mile junior varsity, beating the favored Washington javes by five and a half lengths, and Syracuse captured the two-mile freshmen honors with Cornell in second place, two lengths behind.

Cornell's time for the four miles, 21:41, was more than three minutes slower than the record set by California in 1928.

The correct order of finish, with times, in the varsity race, follows:

First race—Six furlongs:
Cornell 11:24.5; Syracuse 12:54.4-5; Massachusetts Tech 22:19; California 22:24.4-5; Columbia 22:33.2-5; Washington 22:41; Pennsylvania 22:58; Wisconsin 22:59.1-5, and the Navy sank a hundred yards from the finish line.

Second race—Five and one-half furlongs:
Syracuse 12:30.5; Cornell 12:35.5; Washington 12:36.5; California 12:37.5; Columbia 12:38.5; Massachusetts Tech 12:39.5; Pennsylvania 12:40.5; Wisconsin 12:41.5; Navy 12:42.5.

Third race—Four furlongs:
Cornell 10:41.5; Syracuse 10:46.5; Washington 10:47.5; California 10:48.5; Columbia 10:49.5; Massachusetts Tech 10:50.5; Pennsylvania 10:51.5; Wisconsin 10:52.5; Navy 10:53.5.

Fourth race—Three furlongs:
Cornell 8:41.5; Syracuse 8:46.5; Washington 8:47.5; California 8:48.5; Columbia 8:49.5; Massachusetts Tech 8:50.5; Pennsylvania 8:51.5; Wisconsin 8:52.5; Navy 8:53.5.

Fifth race—Two furlongs:
Cornell 7:41.5; Syracuse 7:46.5; Washington 7:47.5; California 7:48.5; Columbia 7:49.5; Massachusetts Tech 7:50.5; Pennsylvania 7:51.5; Wisconsin 7:52.5; Navy 7:53.5.

Sixth race—One furlong:
Cornell 6:41.5; Syracuse 6:46.5; Washington 6:47.5; California 6:48.5; Columbia 6:49.5; Massachusetts Tech 6:50.5; Pennsylvania 6:51.5; Wisconsin 6:52.5; Navy 6:53.5.

Seventh race—Half furlong:
Cornell 5:41.5; Syracuse 5:46.5; Washington 5:47.5; California 5:48.5; Columbia 5:49.5; Massachusetts Tech 5:50.5; Pennsylvania 5:51.5; Wisconsin 5:52.5; Navy 5:53.5.

Eighth race—Quarter furlong:
Cornell 4:41.5; Syracuse 4:46.5; Washington 4:47.5; California 4:48.5; Columbia 4:49.5; Massachusetts Tech 4:50.5; Pennsylvania 4:51.5; Wisconsin 4:52.5; Navy 4:53.5.

MAIDIE WINS CRUISER RACE

Captain Jack Power's Craft Declared Winner of International Event at Prince Rupert

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., June 26.—The cruiser Maidie, entry of Capt. Jack Power of the Queen City Yacht Club, Seattle, officially was announced as winner of first prize in the Seattle to Prince Rupert international cruiser race, which ended here yesterday.

To the winner goes the Prince Rupert Rowing and Yacht Club trophy.

The order in which the craft placed follows: First, over all, Maidie. First division, 25 to 40 feet, Bolinder, first; Triton, second; Kiltwake, third; Tye, fourth. Second division, 41 to 48 feet, Maidie, first; Winifred, second; Mary-Ann, third; Buccanear, fourth. Third division, 49 to 100 feet, Nisbet, first; Rowdy, second; Tye Scout, third; Igth making the longest non-stop run with the Bolinder next. Navigation honors went to the Triton. The Buccanear was adjudged the fastest cruiser.

YOUTHFUL SWIM STAR TO APPEAR IN EXHIBITION

Constance Hand, junior United States national fifty-yard freestyle champion and holder of many other records, will visit here with the New York women's aquatic team which will stage an exhibition in the Crystal Garden on July 11. Miss Hand is twelve years old and acclaimed as the best all-round swimmer of her age ever developed in the United States.

NANAIMO SOFTBALL

NANAIMO, June 2.—Two games were played in the Twilight Softball League on the Central Sports Ground last evening. In the first match the Automotives met the Union Oil and were beaten, 4 runs to 6. The batteries were: Automotives, Cornish and Rice; Union Oil, Martin and Murphy.

In the second game the Galahads met the Foresters and ran away with the match, 10 runs to 4. The batteries were: Galahads, Watchorn and Kilby; Foresters, Langdon and Beggs.

The Plaza girls were at home to the Jazzers on the Central Sports Ground, the Plaza girls coming out on top with a score of 9 to 3. Phillips, for the Jazzers, clouted out a home run, and Bevis and Kukul scored homers for the Plaza. The batteries were: Plaza, Jones and Meredith; Jazzers, Thompson and Keen. Billy Kelly umpired.

BACKSPIN SHOT

REQUIRES PERFECTION
IN THE WRIST ACTION

Is it a good idea for an average player to use a backspin mashie?

Answered by
ARE G. ESPINOSA

The backspin mashie is no longer used by any player, so all players should perfect the backspin shot by developing the proper wrist action when using the regular mashie. The shot is put on the ball by the action of the wrist on the mashie, or mashie niblick, rather than by the rough face of the old time backspin mashie which has been barred from tournament play.

Police Court Cases

In the city police court yesterday K. A. Webster pleaded guilty to the theft of several packages of cigarettes from a tobacco stand. He said that he had had a few drinks at the time and knew of no reason why he should have taken the cigarettes, as he was in no need of them.

Constable Woodburn related the circumstances of the arrest. The accused had endeavored to escape and had hid in a garage behind a car.

Webster, who is only nineteen years old, was remanded for sentence by Magistrate George Jay.

Leslie Vipond pleaded guilty to being intoxicated in a public place and admitted to two previous convictions. He was sentenced to twenty days' imprisonment.

VANCOUVER INDUSTRIES INCREASING

VANCOUVER, June 26.—Eleven new factories have been established in Vancouver in the past three months and eight established industries made major plant extensions in the same time. It was announced at a luncheon meeting of the industrial committee of Vancouver Board of Trade today.

During the past eighteen months, it was recorded, one hundred new industries have been established in Vancouver, giving employment to an average of 1,399 hands, and with an estimated payroll of $1,707,100. In the same time fifty-three established factories in the Vancouver area had new plant investments of over $10,000,000, and largely increased their lists of employees.

There are now 1,600 factories in Vancouver district, employing 30,000 persons, it was stated, as compared with 507 plants employing 13,334 persons in 1925.

Plans for continuation of the work of the industrial department were endorsed by the committee. These plans, it was announced, will include a concentration on inducing British manufacturers to establish plants here to take advantage of the Canadian market and of the constantly increasing trade with countries bordering on the Pacific.

EXCELLENT MUSIC AT ROTARY LUNCH

Programme Supplements Interesting Talk on Coal by Mr. Jack MacKay

The Victoria Rotary Club made a slight variation in its regular luncheon programme yesterday by the introduction of a longer and particularly delightful musical programme. Two beautiful solos by Mrs. Leonard James were much enjoyed, while a quintette, led by Major H. Watt, played several numbers which were much appreciated.

Mr. Jack MacKay gave an interesting talk on coal consumption, telling of the advantages of the automatic furnace. Coal, he stated, was still the most dominating fuel on this continent, and the bituminous coal of Vancouver Island, when treated under modern methods, was second to none.

Mr. George McGregor told the meeting of his recent visit to Montreal, where he stated the aims of Rotary were identical with those to be found on this coast.

Co-operation on the Fishing Grounds

SINCE the days of the Indian, salmon trolling has been pretty much of a one-man, one-boat job. But this season many of the British Columbia boats are flying a bit of yellow bunting that proclaims they are members of the British Columbia Fishermen's Co-operative. So far this year the new organization has been doing well. The illustration shows some of the trollers' boats at anchor. Note the four tall trolling spars on each. Also seen is a fisherman and a buyer doing business on the landing float.

At The Playhouses

COLISEUM When Irving Berlin, famous song composer, married an heiress and attracted international attention, he might have inspired a picture plot. "Children of Pleasure," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's romance now showing at the Coliseum Theatre, tells the story of a song writer and millionaire's daughter, which, perhaps, was suggested by the former romance.

CAPITOL Five beautiful songs, all THEATRE especially written by Charles Wakefield Cadman and Rex Roehmold, are sung by John Boles, "the golden voice of the screen," in Universal's dramatic musical spectacle, "Captain of the Guard," which is now playing at the Capitol Theatre.

PLAYHOUSE Dorothy Revier, who plays a leading role in "Murder on the Roof," the Columbia all-talking mystery thriller, now showing at the Playhouse Theatre, credits her

DUTCH BERRIES MAY COME IN

Importations of Fruit Treated With Sulphur Dioxide Threaten Jam Market for Processed Berries

The province is threatened with importations of Dutch strawberries, which have been treated by the use of sulphur dioxide in order to preserve them until they reach the jam factories. This is the form in which a quantity of berries are brought into the British market for jamming purposes, the cooking of the fruit driving off the chemical used. There has been correspondence passing between the department at Ottawa and the markets branch of this province with regard to the regulations governing such importations.

The information obtained from Ottawa is to the effect that such berries may be imported into Canada and utilized in jamming, but this is subject to the treatment of them so that not more than one part in two thousand of the sulphur dioxide is allowed to remain in the berries as put up.

The containers of the berries so jammed must contain a declaration to the effect that this is true. There is still on hand in the province a very considerable tonnage of processed berries from last year, which were put up without the use of chemicals and contain only sugar in addition to the fruit. This is being carried in cold storage, and the growers are expecting that with a shortage of crop this year that these processed berries now on hand may be absorbed for jamming purposes.

The fact that the science of accurate bidding can never become mechanical is evidenced by the many distributions constantly encountered wherever it is impossible for a partnership accurately to determine in advance their combined maximum number of deliverable tricks, nor for one partner accurately to determine in advance what may prove to be the best bid in the combined hands for game or to prevent an adverse game.

For example take North's and South's holdings in the above deal played with Hearts the trump. The probable trick value of South's holding is from seven to eight tricks, and of North's holding in support of Hearts from three to four tricks. Actually South can deliver the maximum of eight and North the maximum of four tricks; yet the fact that these maximums are actually deliverable cannot be determined in advance of the actual play of the two hands.

To the untrained card mind South's preferable original bid would appear to be that of a pre-emptive bid of either three or four Hearts. Such original bid, however, could well prove disastrous, as it provides for but one situation—that of where the combined hands can go game in Hearts, and does not provide for the possible situation in which they can go game in Diamonds and not in Hearts, as would be the case if partner held for example:

♣ A 6 4 3

or for the possible situation where opponents can go game because of a Heart instead of a Diamond lead by North, as would be the case if, with a different distribution of the outstanding thirty-nine cards, West should obtain the final declaration at four Spades. For example:

♠ K Q J 10 6
♥ A Q
♦ J 9 3
♣ Q 5 4

♠ 9 7 5 4
♦ 10 8 4
♣ A K 8 7 6

and North opened a Heart instead of a Diamond.

Practical experience has long since proved that South, to provide for any one of the three possible situations outlined above, should preferably open with a bid of one Diamond, the suit in which he holds two sure defensive tricks, to indicate the desired lead in case opponent on left wins the final declaration; also to provide for Diamonds being the best bid for game in the combined hands, the Heart suit being shown secondly if necessary, or expedient.

SALIENT POINTS OF THE BIDDING

Auction: South opens with one Diamond. West overcalls with one Spade and North with one No Trump. East passing. South now bids two Hearts. West and North passing. East bids two Spades and South three Hearts, concluding the bidding.

Contract: In Contract, as in Auction, South opens the bidding with one Diamond. West overcalls with one Spade and North with one No Trump. East passing. South now bids four Hearts.

THE PLAY

West opens the King of Spades. The Dummy going down, North takes with the Ace of Spades, leads the Ace of Hearts, followed by a small Heart.

This practically concludes the play, as South can lose but one Club trick, making six odd on the hand.

YOUTHS' CAMPS TO OPEN SOON

Boys to Go Under Canvas at New Sooke Camp July 9—Young People August 2-11

The Victoria boys' work board will open camp at Sooke on July 9 to 16 for boys twelve years and over. Rev. Hugh Nixon, the camp director, has secured as leaders Rev. J. H. A. Watt and Mr. Ordley, of Lake Cowichan. The programme will provide swimming, hiking, friendship and talks on character development. The camp fire programmes will be a feature. The cost of the seven-day camp is $7 and is available to the boys of Victoria and district. Reservations may be made with Mr. F. V. Shoemaker, Y.M.C.A. The promoters offer a place with safe bathing and an opportunity of securing a good healthy tan and enjoying the fellowship of other boys and friendly leaders.

The young people of Victoria and district will go into camp at Sooke on August 2. This camp is sponsored by the newly organized inter-denominational young people's work board, under the auspices of the Religious Education Council. The purpose of the camp is to aid young people with their society problems, to develop more securely Christian character and to create a lasting feeling of unity among Christian young people's organizations. Rev. M. W. Lees, of Sidney, honorary president of the United Church Young People's Union, is the director, and will have as his leaders, Dr. R. Y. B. Scott, of Union College, Bible study group; Professor E. S. Parr, of Victoria College, on problems of citizenship; Rev. M. W. Lees, materials and methods in young people's work, and Fred J. Robbins, Metropolitan Church, social recreational leadership.

This will be a delightful vacation for the young people at this very attractive site overlooking Sooke Harbor, just past the Sooke River. The cost for the camp is $12.50, or $15.00 per day. Mr. Jack Aylwin, 1737 Oak Bay Avenue, Victoria, is the registrar.

Little Joseph had recently taken up the study of physiology, which he found so interesting that he was eager to apply its teachings in the home. Particularly as regarded the daily food Joseph was inclined to condemn or approve uncompromisingly from his physiological standpoint. One evening his aunt was serving some fresh apple cider, when Joseph's uncle jokingly said, "How about this cider being good for us, Joseph?" The boy, looking very serious, replied, "I don't think it is very good for us, Uncle William, as our Physiology says cider contains 10 per cent alcohol!" "Is that so?" said Uncle William. "Well, how can you explain the case of our neighbor, Mr. Jowles, who raised a great many apples, made cider by the barrel and it was necessary to defend it with a clinching argument, so, with quivering lips, he stammered, 'Well, I'll—bet he wasn't very healthy when he died!'"

FAREWELL TALK BY DR. DAVIES

CFCT Will Present "Elias and Wong" Tonight in the First of a Series of Programmes

Two humorous characters, "Elias and Wong," will make their appearance over CFCT at 8 o'clock this evening. Radio listeners will remember these two comedians through their connection with the "Nightbirds" in former years. Their sketches will be presented weekly at this time and will be fifteen minutes in length. Listeners can well imagine the fun that can be had when "Elias and Wong," colored man and Chinaman, respectively, get together for a few minutes. This comedy team will make its bow to the listening public at 8 o'clock tonight over the local station.

The many radio friends of Dr. Clem Davies will be glad to learn that he will be present in the studio of CFCT at 8:30 o'clock tonight to give a short word of farewell before sailing for Europe this evening.

STANLEY MAXTED ON C.P.R. BILL

Canadian Tenor Heard on Coast-to-Coast Hook-Up Tonight at 8—Released Through CKWX

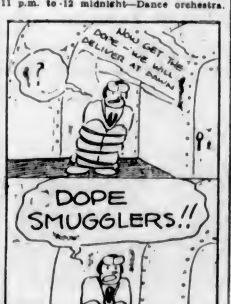

The Canadian Pacific's hour of cheerful and good music will feature Stanley Maxted, Canadian tenor, as guest artist, during the coast-to-coast hook-up this evening from 8 to 9 o'clock, heard through station CKWX, Vancouver.

Mr. Maxted's selections are composed of some fine old traditional songs and ballads, including the Capriccio Brillante for piano and orchestra. Rex Battle and his orchestra will assist.

SCHOOL TAX ASSESSMENT IS DISCUSSED

Trouble Develops With Regard to Situation in Ladysmith - Minister of Education Invited

FIRE PROTECTION OUTSIDE CITY

LADYSMITH, June 26.—Following a communication from a resident of the school district, the Mayor and aldermen were deeply involved in the discussion of assessment technicalities, when the Ladysmith City Council assembled for their regular session.

Citations by the city clerk from the various acts on the subject, convinced the council that a theory anomaly prevailed in the Municipal Assessment Act, and were responsible for an anomalous situation, since the matter concerned taxation in the school district, that the Minister of Education be invited to meet the Council to clarify the situation.

SPRAYING TARVIA
Tarvia is being sprayed on the streets, although the process is slightly interrupted by summer showers. It was decided to extend the area authorized for treatment at the last meeting, by surfacing a further stretch along the Esplanade beyond the City Hall. The suggestion of the Mayor, that should the allocation for street repairs be exceeded by this step, the hours of the street employees be curtailed, received no support from the aldermen. The remark led to a sharp passage of words, when Alderman Wright accused Mayor Reid of exceeding his civic prerogatives on a former occasion under like circumstances. Alderman Mason was under the impression there was plenty of work at full time for the street employees for years to come.

CITY POWER SUPPLY
The employees at the City Power plant, according to Alderman Reid, chairman of the electric light committee, was desirous of a shorter shift on July 1. The original suggestion called for no power from 5 a.m. until noon, and a further gap from 2 p.m. until six in the evening.

The council failed to see the utility of breaking the service during the morning hours, if the plant engineers had the Dominion Day celebration in view, as no official activity begins until the street parade at 1 o'clock. In the afternoon high temperatures made refrigerator service a necessity, especially in butcher shops, as meat spoiled easily in the rising temperature of a refrigerator. The Council felt the matter of the engineers' day off was easily adjusted by the engineers themselves. In a manner that would not interrupt a continuous service. Final decision in the matter was left to the electric light committee.

FIRE SERVICE
Fire department service to the school district, adjacent to the city, residents in that area are to be notified will be discontinued after June 30, unless persons desiring such protection agree to pay the wages of the firemen attending, and ten dollars for the fire truck. Despite the clarity of the notices sent out by City Clerk Callin, an impression apparently has gained ground that the ten dollar expense item for the fire truck constitutes an annual subscription. This erroneous idea will be dispelled, and the expiry date of the service probably extended a few days to allow a good response from the home-owners of the district.

At the adjournment, it was intimated that practically all preparations were completed for the success of the Dominion Day holiday in Ladysmith.

Child Scalded In Tub of Hot Laundry Water

NANAIMO, June 26.—Eunice May, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Huxton, Cedar district, passed away in the local hospital last evening. The little tot, who was only twenty-one months old, on Monday last fell into a tub of hot water which her mother was getting ready to start washing. She was badly scalded and was brought into the hospital for treatment. The remains now repose at the D. J. Jenkins, Ltd., parlour, pending instructions from Coroner Hickling.

Japanese Is Killed at Mill Plant

On Monday night a regrettable accident occurred in the Victoria Lumber & Manufacturing Co.'s plant, when a Japanese was killed by a silver of wood, thrown back by the pony edger, which pierced the lung of the unfortunate man. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, the mill being closed on that account from 3 o'clock until 7 p.m.

PRINCESS PATRICIA TAKES EXCURSION TO BELLINGHAM

NANAIMO, June 26.—At 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, the Princess Patricia left Nanaimo with 477 excursionists to spend a four-hour stay in Bellingham, Wash. After a four-hour run through magnificent scenery, the party arrived at Bellingham at 1 o'clock. Bellingham citizens were on hand to meet the party, and many of those aboard took advantage of their kindness in offering them a ride through the city and to the various points of interest in their private automobiles. While the start of the trip was marred by rain, the entire trip was thoroughly enjoyable, there being practically no rain during the four-hour stay in Bellingham. A snappy orchestra provided music, of which the dancers took advantage. At 10:15 the excursionists arrived home, tired but happy.

FAREWELL TO REV. H. A. IRELAND

GARDEN CITY, June 26.—An enjoyable evening was spent on Wednesday when members and adherents of the Garden City United Church met to bid farewell to their pastor, Rev. H. A. Ireland, who will leave shortly to begin his duties as chaplain at the penitentiary in New Westminster. Mr. Perry was the chairman, and after the opening hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," spoke of the regret which is felt by the congregation. Others who voiced the same feeling of regret and with tribute to the work which he has accomplished were Rev. F. Conley, H. James, Sunday school superintendent; Mr. Sim and Mr. Elliott, senior wardens. An excellent programme followed, which included solo, "Good-Bye," W. R. Woods; solo, "Awaying for You," Mrs. F. Conley; solo, "Wherever You Walk," Mrs. F. Conley; "On Your Mission of Life," Misses Ella and Grace Brown; duet, "Sweetest Name I Know," Misses Doreen Briggs and Gladys Bess; quartet, "Sweet and Low," Mrs. F. Tupman, Mrs. Hobden, Mrs. Tupman and Mr. W. R. Woods; Mr. and Mrs. Tupman responding to an encore with the "Venetian Song"; solo, "The Blackbird," Mrs. F. Tupman.

During the evening an envelope containing a gift money was presented by Miss Grace Brown to Mr. and Mrs. Ireland from the members of the church, Sunday school and Women's Association. Mr. Ireland responded, thanking the donors for their thoughtful gift. Refreshments were served by members of the Women's Association and a social time was enjoyed.

DAUNTLESS TEAM WINS EASILY

COURTENAY, June 25.—After losing the previous game with the Courtenay Cricket Club, the men of H.M.S. Dauntless took their revenge on Wednesday, winning by a score of 122 runs for eight wickets to the locals' 74.

Leaves Nanaimo

NANAIMO, June 26.—Court Nanaimo Foresters Home held a farewell gathering last night in the Foresters Hall to Mr. Andrew E. Thorneycroft, who will leave soon to take a position in Bellingham. There was a large attendance, and a long and varied programme was given. During the course of the evening Mr. Thorneycroft was presented with a pipe by Mr. William Hart, on behalf of the adult and juvenile courts, in his usual happy fashion, and Mr. Thorneycroft suitably responded. A merry evening was brought to a close with the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Lectured at Langford

LANGFORD, June 26.—A lantern lecture, full of historical anecdotes and references, and illustrating the types of different periods of architecture, was given last evening by Mr. M. T. Tilden, lecturer for the R.M.B. Department of the Government, in the Women's Institute Hall at Langford. Rev. A. L. Nixon acted as chairman.

Attended Funeral

NANAIMO, June 26.—Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Carson returned from Carbonado last night, where they attended the funeral of James Nelson, who died last Friday in a Seattle hospital from injuries received in the Carbonado mine on the previous day. The late Mr. Nelson resided in Nanaimo several years, leaving for Carbonado about twelve years ago. While in Nanaimo he was a member of the Knights of Pythias, having filled all official chairs in the local lodge.

NANAIMO, June 26.—Mrs. Agnes Lawson Tuck, wife of Mr. Thomas Tuck, passed away at the family residence, Brechin, yesterday, at the age of forty-three years. A native of Durham, England, she had resided in Nanaimo for nineteen years. Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Ephraim and James, both at home. Her father, three brothers and three sisters, residing in the Old Country, also survive her.

The Origin of the Solar System

This Diagram Is Intended to Give a Rough Idea of the Sequence of Events Which Occurred at the Birth of the Solar System. The Picture Is, of Course, Imaginary, and Is Not Drawn to Scale.

Editor's Note.—This is the nineteenth of a series of fortnightly articles prepared under the auspices of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada by various members of the association interested in the subject. It is hoped thereby to accomplish one of the aims of the society, namely, the diffusion of astronomical knowledge to the ordinary person. The next article will appear on June 28.

SOME ninety-three million miles away from the earth on which we live shines a star, in many ways very undistinguished. It is one in a universe containing millions of others, a rather undistinguished specimen of one of the commonest varieties, but of vast importance to us, since it is the sun which provides all the heat and light without which we could not live. Around it there circle eight, perhaps nine, planets with some thousands of small bodies, the asteroids, comets, etc. Our earth is one of the smaller planets. These range in diameter from about 3,000 to 85,000 miles and their distances from the sun from about thirty million to some 2,800 million miles, excluding the still more distant objects recently found by astronomers at the Lowell Observatory. The next nearest neighbor is the star Proxima Centauri, twenty-five million miles away. How was the sun's family, the "solar system," formed? This has been one of the most fascinating and difficult problems with which astronomers have to deal. Several theories have been put forward, too many to be described here, but we will consider only the most recent one. As far back as the year 1750, Buffon suggested that the planets were formed by a "comet" colliding with the sun. This idea was not regarded with much favor by astronomers until this century when it was revived in another form. The new theory was that not a "comet," but another star or sun happened, in its journey through space, to come very near our own sun. It is known that the material of which all stars are formed is liquid or gaseous, probably the latter. Thus when this star came near, it raised huge tides in the gases in the sun, just as the moon raises tides in the oceans on earth. But this was no ordinary ebb and flow, masses of white hot gas were pulled right off the sun's surface. Much fell back again, but a certain amount was able to condense into gigantic liquid drops, extremely hot, but cooling rapidly. By the gravitational attraction of the now retreating intruder these drops were swung into orbits round the sun. In the process of time the liquid cooled, solid cores were formed and grew until the "drops" had solidified into the planets as we know them. This theory has until recently held the field. It explains many of the features of our solar system.

Burgess Bedtime Stories

Mr. Blacksnake Is Driven Away

—By THORNTON W. BURGESS

A situation that is tense is often saved by common sense. —Old Mother Nature.

Danny and Nanny Meadow Mouse didn't know what to do. Mr. Blacksnake had found their new home up in a tree. It was lucky for them that neither had been in that home. "I guess," said Danny, "that we shall have to look for a new home elsewhere."

"I guess," said Nanny, "that you are right. And that was such a beautiful home. Never have I felt more safe than I felt there."

"You wouldn't feel safe there any longer," said Danny. "No, I don't suppose I would," Nanny replied. "Still," said Danny, "if Mr. Blacksnake should be driven away, he might never again return. Somehow, I have a feeling that he is just traveling. I don't believe he lives around here. Oh, dear! I wish I were big enough to do something."

Just then Sammy Jay alighted on the tree. He didn't see Danny and Nanny, but he did see Mr. Blacksnake. "Thief! Thief! Thief!" he began screaming at the top of his lungs.

Now when Sammy screams "Thief!" like that, everyone knows that he has discovered an enemy, and most of the feathered folk within hearing flock to see what the trouble is. It was long before the feathered folk began coming from all directions. Mr. Blacksnake withdrew his head from inside the tin can. He had found nothing to interest him in there. Now he was darting his forked tongue out and in rapidly, as he glared at Sammy Jay and the other feathered folk gathering around. He didn't like so much attention. He never does like attention. He held himself in readiness to strike at any of his tormentors who might come within striking distance. But none did. They would come almost within striking distance, but never quite. Mr. Blacksnake began to look for a way out. He glided swiftly down that tree. Danny and Nanny saw him coming and look to their heels. Mr. Blacksnake didn't see them. He reached the ground and started away at a great pace.

He couldn't escape the sharp eyes of the birdfolk. After him flew the whole crowd, all screaming at the top of their lungs. It wasn't long before they were so far away that the sound of their voices reached Danny and Nanny. Mr. Blacksnake had been driven away.

And Danny was right. Mr. Blacksnake never did return. (Copyright, 1930, T. W. Burgess)

The next story: "Danny Meadow Mouse Finds a Neighbor."

At the end of the dinner which was organized by the British Legion in honor of those decorated with the Victoria Cross, and presided over by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, a lady asked one of the heroes, "How did you win your cross?"

"I saved the lives of all the members of my company, m'am."

"Oh! How did you do that?"

"I imprisoned the cook, m'am."

She says that the presence of a constable in a home gave one an added sense of security. For instance, a burglar would be too scared to enter a house if he saw a policeman's helmet hanging in the hall. In conversation, she finds policemen more natural than other people. They have mixed with all societies and are full of information and interest. But she admitted that there is more work in the house when policemen live there, because they have to go on duty at irregular hours.

Mrs. A.—My husband certainly does enjoy smoking in his den. Has your husband a den?

Mrs. B.—No, he grows all over the house.

It's surprising how fast a supply of this very essential equipment is used up... ARE YOU SURE you have plenty on hand?... Don't wait until the very last minute to place your order... It's perfectly obvious that we can give you a better printing job when we have plenty of time. DO IT TODAY.

the street or come up town. "For five years I suffered terribly with liver and gall bladder trouble. At times the pain in my right side was so severe I could hardly endure it. In spite of the many medicines I took to act on the liver my tongue remained coated and I was constantly bilious."

"I suffered a great deal from indigestion, gas pains and headaches, and a terrible burning sensation in my stomach. "Although I spent hundreds of dollars trying to regain my health I kept going down hill until I became so weak, dizzy and nervous that I hardly dared venture out of the house."

"And now for the first time in years I am not bilious. My nerves are steady and I am no longer bothered with headaches. The pains in my right side have disappeared and I feel so strong and full of energy it is a pleasure to be out and going. My digestion is splendid, and I eat what I want."

"I owe it very bit to Sargon and the Sargon Soft Mass Pills, which I took along with the medicine, and there is nothing too good I can say for them."

"The above statement was made by Mrs. W. A. Shelley, of 483 Marshall Street, Milwaukee, Wis., a member of the Eastern Star and Episcopal Church, and popular with a wide circle of friends."

Sargon may be obtained in Victoria and Vancouver from all Owl Drug Stores and in New Westminster from the Bess Drug Co. (Adv.)

HAPPY HOME IS READY FOR POLICE

SYDNEY, Australia, June 26.—"Wanted, two constables, share large sunny double room in widow's home, 35 Coogee Bay Road, Randwick." The woman who inserted this advertisement in a paper here is the widow of a police constable. She finds that policemen generally are much more congenial company in the house than other people. Perhaps her preference for constables is due to the fact that, after her marriage to a constable, she lived with him at a police station for many years.

She says that the presence of a constable in a home gave one an added sense of security. For instance, a burglar would be too scared to enter a house if he saw a policeman's helmet hanging in the hall. In conversation, she finds policemen more natural than other people. They have mixed with all societies and are full of information and interest. But she admitted that there is more work in the house when policemen live there, because they have to go on duty at irregular hours.

Bears Make an Orderly Retreat, Enabling Stock Mart to Close on Rally

NEW YORK, June 26.—The bears muffed their drums and spiked their big guns today, enabling the stock market to close on a rally for the second successive day, thereby establishing a record for the current month. Sales, however, were the smallest since June 13, totaling only 3,272,000 shares.

With the aid of short coverings, which followed one attempt to depress prices, the more active shares finished one to five points higher in the dull market, while some of the volatile issues advanced 6 to 20 points.

Money went begging, after renewing at 2 per cent, the plentifulness of funds forced the official call loan rate down to 1 1/2 per cent, the lowest since August 1, 1917.

U.S. Steel got one point below yesterday's close in the early selling, but thereafter sold 6 points above the Wednesday low and finished a point net higher. American Can, American Telephone, General Electric, Atchafalaya, New York Central, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Westinghouse Electric, General Electric and Union Pacific, among others, were up 1 to 4. American Tobacco gained 14 points, Ingersoll-Rand 20, Eastman Kodak 10, Diamond Match 12 and Allied Chemical 8.

Foreign exchanges were irregular. The Spanish peseta again went into new low ground.

An improved tone was apparent in the bond market and gains exceeded losses for the first time in several days. A wide list of corporate issues, both new and convertible, appreciated. Most of the rally came in the late trading.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

It had been a very convivial reunion dinner, and when the time came for the guests to depart, Wilson and Roberts found that they had chinned out the hour of two, Wilson broke the long silence that had ensued.

“Does your wife miss you when you are late on such occasions as this?” he asked.

“Very seldom,” his friend dimly replied. “There are still two large jumps on the bank of my head where she hit me the last time.”

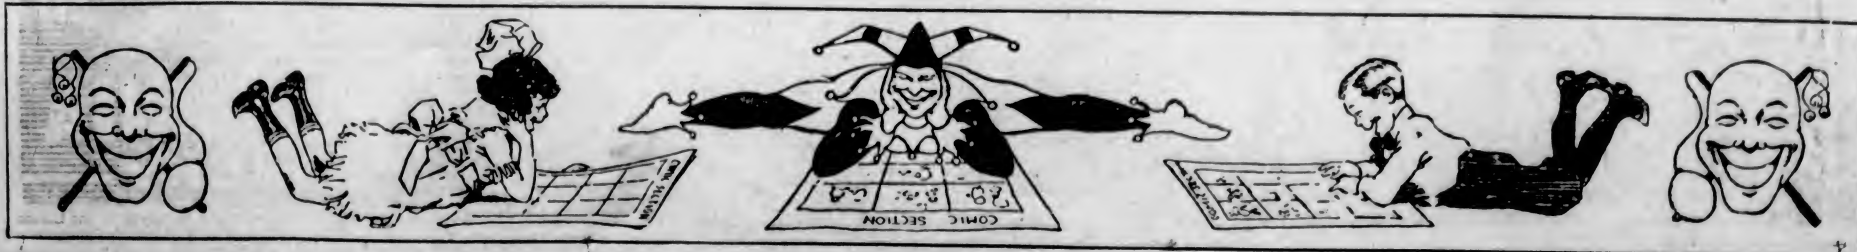

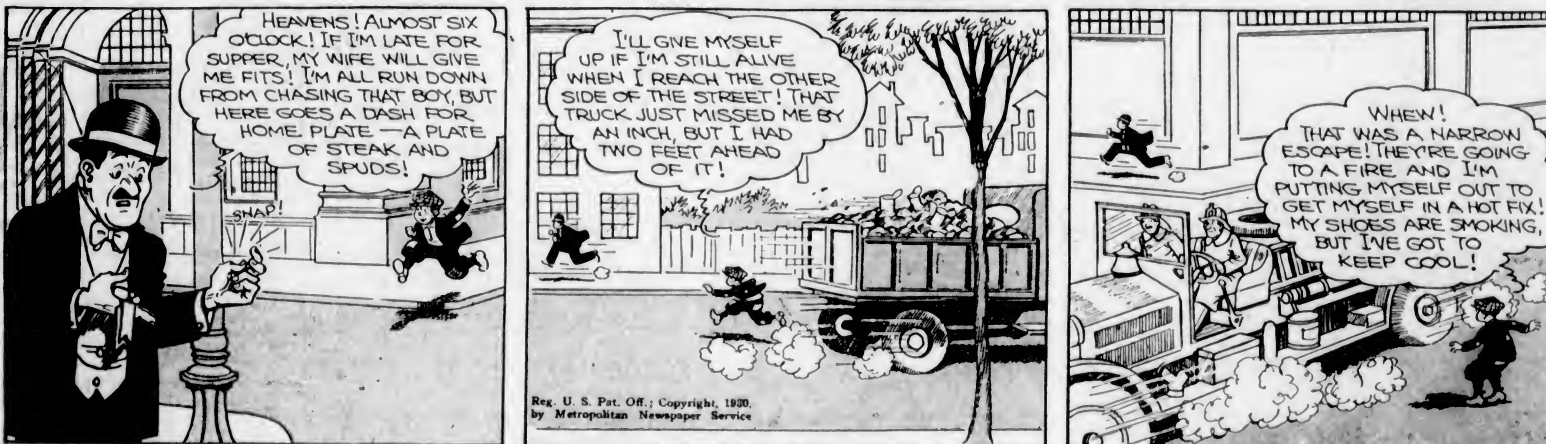

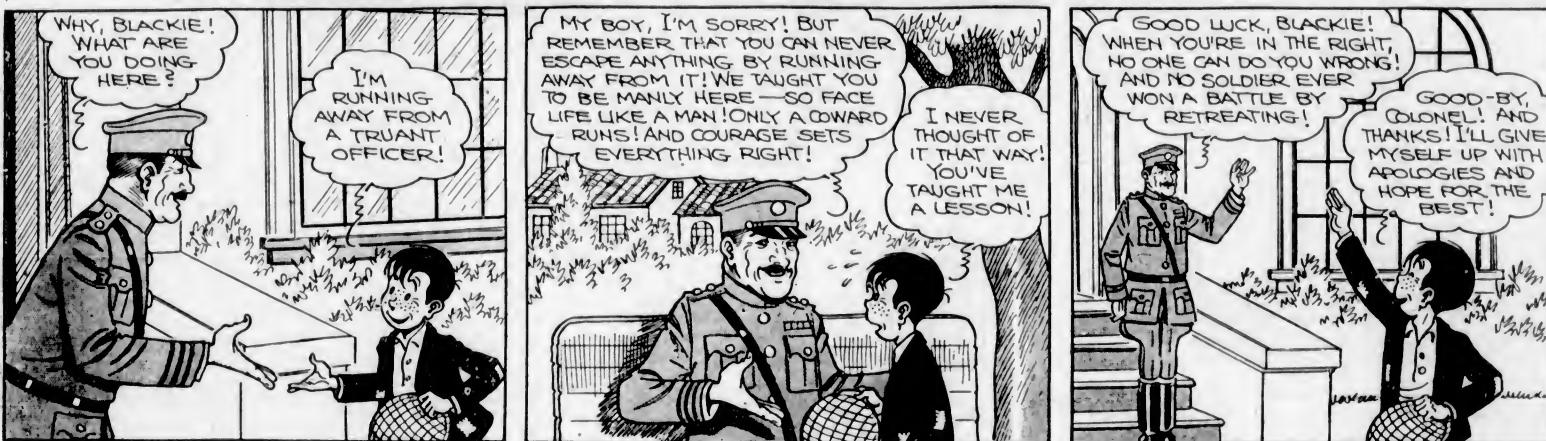

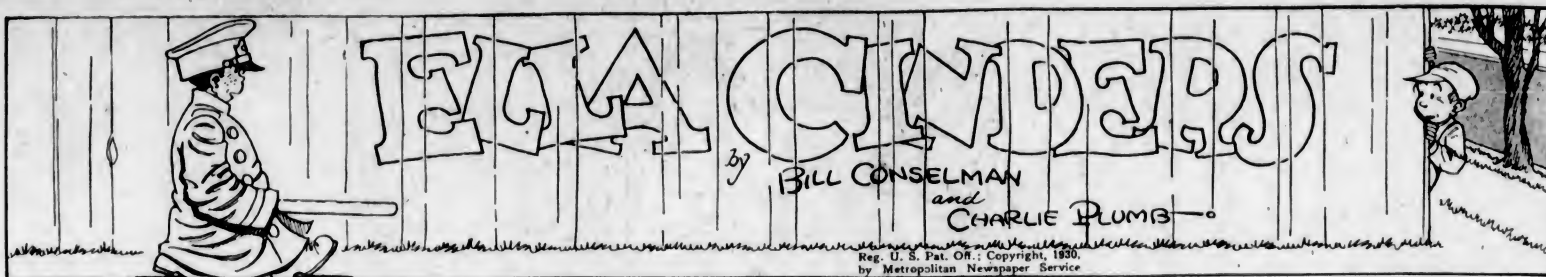

About an hour later, and just as they had passed a church which had chimed out the hour of two, Wilson broke the long silence that had ensued.

Dear Old Soul (in curiosity shop): “I suppose this is another of those horrible futuristic paintings which you call art.”

Urbane Shopkeeper: “Excuse me, madam, but that is a mirror.”

CHAPTER XXIII

As Cropey and Annassa West returned to the living room by one door, Noah Peabody and the lodge keeper, escorting the diminutive veterinary between them, entered it by the other.

"Overtook him just a-going into his house," explained Noah. And to Cranson: "There's your patient, Doc, hop to it."

The doctor approached the couch on which John Diamond lay. More than ever, Annassa thought, did the little man resemble a spider. He was so wizened and grey, so revoltingly hairy. The gleam in the beady black eyes that swiftly took in one after another of the assembled company had something hungry about it.

She glanced toward John Diamond and saw that, for all the interest the millionaire took in the proceedings, he might as well have been dead.

The veterinary had paused and now looked down on the pallid face, his own face and the emotions hidden from those about him. After a moment, stooping, he undid the improvised bandages and glanced at the wound. "Pistol, eh?" With lower lip sucked in between toothless gums, he examined the hole where the bullet had entered. "From a distance of not less than twenty feet, I should say. Well now, let's see." Deft as a finger, he applied some lotion taken from the black bag he carried, saturating the cloth with it, at last binding one of the cloths into place with strips of adhesive plaster. When the bandage had been adjusted, he said to his patient, "There now, you'll be all right in a day or two. But remember, no excitement—no excitement."

For the first time the millionaire opened his eyes.

A golden fog of candlelight enveloped the face which beat so close above him. That and his own vision, weakened by the loss of blood, made it impossible for him to distinguish its features with any clarity.

"Who are you?" he asked in a whisper.

With the first sign of returning consciousness on the part of the wounded man, Cranson's whole attitude had changed. His other personality, that of the half-mad psalm singer, took possession of his lean body, swaying it to a music only audible to ears that understood it.

Lifting his head, he chanted, "I am he that putteth not out his money to usury nor taketh reward from the innocent."

Diamond stirred uneasily. The wound had made him a trifle feverish.

"Do you imply that I have taken reward against the innocent?"

The chant continued:

"There are those that rebel against the light. They know not the way thereof nor abide in the paths thereof."

Here Cropey tried to interpose, but his employer waved him away.

To Cranson, "What is your name?"

There was a pause, during which all of those who watched experienced the same sensation—that of being spectators. Describing it one another afterward, they said it was as though the living room of Bride's House had suddenly become a theatre, and that they, as audience, had seen the curtain rise on the last act of a melodrama.

With one of his lightning transitions the little veterinary cast aside his role of soothsayer. "I am Derick Cranson," he said with simple dignity. "Dr. Derick Cranson."

"Cranson!" The wounded man blinked in an effort to clear his vision. "Derick Cranson!" Then slowly, the light of recognition dawned in his eyes. "Not the boy from the circus?"

The other nodded. "Cranson—the bare-back rider." It was evident he related this moment between the millionaire and himself.

"Rivals once, enemies now. This is how we meet, John, after thirty years."

"I thought you were dead," said Diamond, "or had been away."

Cranson smiled. It was a slow wide smile that opened the wrinkled face like the gash of a knife, exposing the single blackened snag on the upper jaw. "I could not go away, John, because I have been waiting—waiting for you to come back."

Here, again, Cropey interposed another objection.

"Chief, you've talked enough. Let me get you out to the car. Garling will take you—"

The owner of The Daily Free Press stared at the managing editor as though he scarcely knew him.

"Don't interfere," was all he said, waiting barely until Cropey had reluctantly resumed his place at the head of the couch, and then "to Cranson, 'What made you so sure I would come back?'"

His answer was another quotation from the Scriptures:

"For the thing which I feared is come upon me. That which I was afraid of has come upon me."

No one in the room could doubt but that the words had for the millionaire some personal significance of a disturbing character. A wave of color dyed his pallid cheeks. His mouth twitched.

"I have nothing to fear," he muttered, but with a furtive look that belied the truth of his words. "No one can make me afraid."

The more of this world's goods that a man possesses, the more he has to fear," said Cranson. "When I saw you enter that palatial home on the hill, when for the first time I had your servant call you master, I knew that the Lord had answered my prayer. Prosperity has delivered you into my hands."

"What, John Diamond, asked, 'has prosperity to do with it?'"

The veterinary's small black eyes glittered shrewdly. "Poor you would have buried yourself in one of the large cities and, in time, be forgotten. Buried under riches, staggering under an honored name, you felt impelled to return to Hales Crossing and guard your secret lest the truth be discovered and your worldly possessions stripped from you. Security at a price. And you have paid it."

"You know my secret?"

"I have known it from the day it became a secret."

"Then why—why in God's name did you not strike before?" In a lifeless tone, "I have lived here for five years—five long, tortured years. What was the object in staying your vengeance?"

Cranson laughed wildly, insanely. "Because it had to be finished where it started—here in this house, in this room—pointing behind him—before this fireplace."

At the word "fireplace" Diamond tried to cover his face with his hands, but he was reminded of his wound, and with a groan relinquished all attempt to escape from the debacle.

"So it was you, Derick, who for years have been trying to lure me to Bride's House? You who awakened me in the middle of the night to whisper that accursed 'Ask No Questions' over the telephone. You who sent me the spray of withered orange blossoms?"

For a moment he gave himself to the reflections which his discovery engendered. But at last a thought, consoling in its utter bleakness, smoothed lines of anguish from his forehead. "Security at a price. A burden seemed to slip from his shoulders. He even smiled. "You are right, I have paid in full. The debt has been squared. Cranson. Your revenge has overstepped itself. You can harry me no longer. I am a free man."

With a sound that was scarcely human, the veterinary leaped forward, his fist raised to strike the face smiling into the candlelight, but Cropey and Garling were too quick for him. Grabbing the excited man about the waist, they dragged him back.

"Let me go," Cranson panted, "let me go. I am not the one you should put in bondage. Fools—traitors!"

He continued to scream incoherent words and phrases until the fury spent itself. Exhausted at last, "You have been blind," he said in a shaken voice. "Blind, 'out your infirmity shall be lifted. Through me, Derick Cranson, you shall come to see the truth.' Waving his hand in the millionaire's direction, "There lies the man you seek. There is the murderer."
